Catherine S. Harrison, Chief Deputy Clerk
S.C. Court of Appeals

Re: Gwendolyn Lockett v. Barnyard Flea Market
Appellate Case No. 2022-001649

Dear Ms. Harrison:

I am writing in response to the letter you wrote me September 27, 2023. I am simultaneously sending the proof of service, which I believe will resolve the first deficiency your letter notes.

I have a question about the second deficiency your letter notes. It mentions that all counsel's names, addresses, and phone numbers must appear on the cover of the record on appeal. The cover of the record on appeal lists the names, addresses, and phone numbers for Kelsey J. Brudvig and Henry D. McMaster Jr. These two lawyers were the only ones to sign Respondent's brief. Do I need to do a new cover for the record on appeal that list Claude T. Prevost III on the cover even though he did not sign the brief? If the cover has another mistake that I am overlooking please let me know.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Yours truly,

R. Jamison Tinsley Jr.
