SC Court of Appeals

Motion to Recall Remittitur

Motion to Stay &

Reversal of Remittitur

Appellate Case No. 2023-CP-08-01884

Lashay Lloyd, Appellant,

v.

Midtown Park Estates, Respondent,

I am asking for South Carolina Court of Appeals to Reverse the Remittitur. Next, I am asking for South Carolina Court of Appeals to investigate mail that came to the Post Office Box 11629. The time frame is September 1 2023 till September 8, 2023. I have proof of my receipt of me purchasing a $50.00 money order and stamped envelopes. The sole purpose of the actions I stated, was to submit my petition for rehearing on September 1 2023 and have it mailed out that same day. I spoke with the clerk of court at South Carolina Court of Appeals (Jenny), she stated "No mail was received from me". I mailed both money order and petition in two separate envelopes. The website I used was from the South Carolina Court of Appeals website. The Post Office Box information is listed on there and that's what I used. I have attached the receipt of the post office, money order, stamped envelopes and the print receipt of the petition I printed off. I am resending in Reverse Remittitur again. For some reason I have got back my Petition for Rehearing that was mailed September 1 2023. I also mailed a money order on September 1 2023 for court filing cost. I have not gotten back the money order. I'm attaching the receipt that I purchased from the United Postal service on September 1 2023. My rehearing has not been properly heard, due to some issue with the mailing system to Columbia SC. I have proof of everything that I purchased for court filing fees. Question: How can money order be mailed properly to South Carolina Court Of Appeals, but the Petition For Rehearing was not? Both documents was mailed on same day September 1 2023.

I am kindly asking to courts to hear my petition and to reverse remittitur.

Respectfully,

October 9, 2023
