

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Vernon T. Harrison, Petitioner,

v.

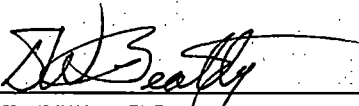

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2023-001589

ORDER

In this post-conviction relief (PCR) matter, the circuit court issued a conditional order of dismissal, which gave petitioner twenty days to show cause why the conditional order should not become final. According to the final order of dismissal, petitioner did not file a response to the conditional order. Petitioner has now served and filed a notice of appeal from the final order.

Where, as here, a PCR applicant fails to file a response to a conditional order of dismissal, this Court has held that the applicant cannot appeal. Edith v. State, 369 S.C. 408, 632 S.E.2d 844 (2006). Accordingly, the notice of appeal is dismissed. The remittitur will be sent as provided by Rule 221(b) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.
