

Defence would ACCEPT But ~~KNEW~~ the COURT would NOT. The States Counsil led the Defendant to believe IF A Guilty Plea WAS ENTERED He would ONLY receive 6 months Prison time And 3 years probation But Felt or Knew the Judge would reject the Agreement.

FACT 4

THE DEFENDANT ANTHONY S. VINCENT would like to claim AT THIS TIME; the ONLY reason He entered A Plea of Guilty is Because He was led to believe By the signing of A Plea Agreement IT WAS Pre-Negotiated of A Sentence of 6 Months Prison time And 3 years Probation, Furthermore The Defendant Claims He would NOT HAVE ENTERED A Plea of Guilty Had He Known He would receive 30 Months Prison time.

The Above NAMED Defendant Hereby Notifies the Court AS INSTRUCTED of Arguable Basis that there are Issues preserved For Appeal. The Defendant would Also like to MAKE the Court Aware He HAS NO ACCESS to The Web site to Access the Rules of South Carolina Appellate Court, And IF This document does NOT meet requirements Please Notify Him with requirements.

RE: THE STATE V. ANTHONY S. VINCENT
APPELLATE CASE NO.: 2023001485

DEAR CLERK,

Please find enclosed my response to your letter instructing me to write with arguable basis that there are issues preserved for appeal. I am currently in the intake phase of S.C.D.C.'s processing, therefore I don't have access to the S.C.A.C.R. I hope my best efforts are acceptable. If not please advise me so I may get all my paperwork in proper order. Please file the enclosed letter for court records. Thank you for your time in this matter.

Very Truly Yours,

Anthony Vincent
