S.C. SUPREME COURT

7-16-2013

To: Honorable Daniel E. Shearouse.

From: Morris Stewart Jr.

Mr. Shearouse, I have an issue with my arrest warrants. The date the warrants were issued has been altered to reflect a later date. I have been in contact with the issuing court, they have indicated that they (The town of Hilton Head) did issue the warrants but they did not make the alterations, nor did they authorize any alterations.

My question to the court is: who may be allowed to make alterations on an arrest warrant after it has been issued?; If the arrest warrant have in fact been altered by one other than the judicial officer who issued the arrest warrant, does that make the arrest warrant defective and void?

I humbly ask the court to provide me with any statutes of law or case laws, etc. that may give me an understanding of this situation and the process I should take to get this issue heard and ruled on.

Thank you very much. With high regards,

I am,

Morris Stewart
