Re: State of South Carolina Vs. Darius Ransom-Williams,
Appellant, 2012-GS-38-0114, 0124

Dear Ms. Harriett P. Bennett,

I am the above Appellant in the above-captioned case. On July 20, 2012 I file Notice of Appeal. Upon receiving the transcript of record from your office I became aware of missing portions of the record which are critical to my Appeal.

On page 74 the record cuts short a section where the trial Judge threw out my first jury before selection was even finished.

On page 291 it states on the record that both counsels closing arguments were not audible. My Counsel at trial objected to several prejudicial remarks from the prosecution and due to these remarks I was unlawfully convicted. I need this portion to perfect my Appeal.

On page 312 there is a portion of the Judge jury instructions where Counsel objected to them and the Judge overruled the objections. These portions as well are very critical to my defense on a Appeal and I would like to Request these portions now.

Thank You
