INDEX

By order dated August 25, 2021, the Supreme Court suspended the Rule 242, SCACR, requirement that petitioner file two copies of the Appendix, and provides that the necessary documents will be obtained from the electronic records of the case before the Court of Appeals. However, this abbreviated Appendix is submitted to provide easy access to the key documents and other filings (in support the common law petition) which demonstrate the compelling need for an answer to the novel and important question of state law on the privilege issue(s).

SC Court of Appeals

This matter comes before the Court by way of a Motion to Compel brought by Plaintiff Michelle Cha Holliman (“Mrs. Holliman”), individually and as personal representative of the Estate of Allen Holliman (“Mr. Holliman”) (collectively “Plaintiff”). Plaintiff seeks an Order compelling Defendant We Are Sharing Hope SC (“WASH”) to produce documents withheld on a claim of peer review privilege, to provide complete discovery responses to Plaintiff’s discovery requests, and to obtain full and complete answers to questions posed to Defendant Darla Welker (“Ms. Welker”) during her deposition. The matter was scheduled to be heard during the week of March 15, 2021, and the parties submitted briefs to the Court to rule without oral argument. After a status conference was held on April 13th, 2021, via WebEx Virtual Courtroom, the Court further provided the parties the opportunity to submit supplemental memoranda in support of the arguments described herein. For the reasons set forth below, this Court declines to extend the application of the peer-review privilege under South Carolina law to Defendant WASH and therefore GRANTS Plaintiff’s Motion to Compel.

Introduction

Plaintiff alleges that Allen B. Holliman suffered from lung problems and that physicians at Defendant Medical University of South Carolina (“MUSC”) determined he was a suitable candidate for a double-lung transplant and subsequently placed him on a transplant list. On November 27, 2018, MUSC informed Holliman he matched with a pair of available donor lungs from donor AFKY198, 2018-0516, and 18-15828 (the “Donor”), which were procured and distributed by Defendant WASH, an organ procurement organization (“OPO”) that provides organ donor services to hospitals throughout South Carolina. Holliman’s MUSC physicians approved him for a double-lung transplant after finding no contraindications for pursuing the transplant. On November 27, 2018, Holliman underwent a double-lung transplant at MUSC. During the surgery, Holliman had complications, and MUSC subsequently discovered the Donor had type A blood, which was incompatible with Holliman’s type O blood. Holliman passed away on November 28, 2018, from hyperacute rejection of his transplanted lungs. Plaintiff alleges Defendant UNOS (“UNOS”) is an organization headquartered in Virginia that manages and serves as the organ transplant system in the United States, the Organ Procurement and Transplantation Network (the “OPTN”), under a contract with the federal government. UNOS manages and serves as the one and only organ transplant system in the United States, and as set forth in Plaintiff’s Complaint, UNOS’s responsibilities as the OPTN for the United States include, “managing the national transplant waiting list,” “matching donors to recipients,” and “monitoring every organ match.” Plaintiff alleges WASH evaluated the suitability of the lungs for transplant, listed the Donor as having type O blood, and distributed the lungs for transplant. Specifically, WASH was the entity responsible for determining the Donor’s blood type by testing at least two blood samples from the Donor indicating a blood-type match.

In discovery, Plaintiff has sought to obtain 335 pages of documents from WASH and depositions responses from WASH’s employee Ms. Welker, who is also a defendant in this case. WASH argues that these documents and the deposition responses are privileged under South Carolina’s two peer review statutes. In the alternative, WASH asks this Court to extend the peer review protections potentially afforded under Virginia law, federal law, or to invoke public policy goals found in both state and federal law, which it argues weigh in favor of a finding that WASH is entitled to invoke peer review privilege, even if WASH does not fall within the current protections of South Carolina’s statutes. These materials, which have been described in WASH’s 4th Amended privilege log, were provided to this Court for in camera review. Upon review, this Court makes the following findings:

1) Whether WASH is Entitled to Peer Review Privilege Under South Carolina law

WASH argues that the withheld materials are protected under the plain language of both the South Carolina's peer review statute, S.C. Code Ann. § 40-71-20 and South Carolina's "new" or supplemental peer review statute, S.C. Code Ann. § 44-7-392. Plaintiff argues that neither statute permits WASH to assert peer review privilege, as they are not included in the terms of the statute.

The cardinal rule of statutory interpretation is to determine the intent of the legislature. Georgia–Carolina Bail Bonds. v. County of Aiken, 354 S.C. 18, 579 S.E.2d 334 (Ct. App.2003); see also Gordon v. Phillips Utils. Inc., 362 S.C. 403, 608 S.E.2d 425 (2005) ("The primary purpose in construing a statute is to ascertain legislative intent."); Olson v. Faculty House of Carolina, Inc., 344 S.C. 194, 205, 544 S.E.2d 38, 44 (Ct.App.2001) ("The quintessence of statutory construction is legislative intent."). However, all rules of statutory construction are subservient to the one that legislative intent must prevail if it can be reasonably discovered in the language used, and that language must be construed in the light of the intended purpose of the statute. McClanahan v. Richland County Council, 350 S.C. 433, 567 S.E.2d 240 (2002). The legislature's intent should be ascertained primarily from the plain language of the statute. State v. Landis, 362 S.C. 97, 606 S.E.2d 503 (Ct. App.2004). If a statute's language is unambiguous and clear, there is no need to employ the rules of statutory construction and this Court has no right to look for or impose another meaning. Tilley v. Pacesetter Corp., 355 S.C. 361, 585 S.E.2d 292 (2003).

A. S.C. Code § 40-71-20

WASH first asserts that it is entitled to invoke peer review privilege pursuant to SC Code Ann. § 40-71-20, entitled "Confidentiality of certain proceedings, records and information; reporting accidents and incidents". Section (A) of the statute provides:

"All proceedings of and all data and information acquired by the committee referred to in Section 40-71-10 in the exercise of its duties are confidential unless a respondent in the proceeding requests in writing that they be made public. These proceedings and documents are not subject to discovery, subpoena, or introduction into evidence in any civil action except upon appeal from the committee action. Information, documents, or records which are otherwise available from original sources are not immune from discovery or use in a civil action merely because they were presented during the committee proceedings, nor shall any complainant or witness before the committee be prevented from testifying in a civil action as to matters of which he has knowledge apart from the committee proceedings or revealing such matters to third persons.”

S.C. Code Ann. § 40-71-20 (A)

The “committee referred to in § 40-71-10” is “an appointed committee which is formed to maintain professional standards of a state or local professional society as defined in this section” S.C. Code Ann. § 40-71-10(B). Section 40-70-10 describes the entities who are provided the authority to invoke peer-review privilege in § 40-71-20 (A), which includes “legal, medical, osteopathic, optometric, chiropractic, psychological, dental, accounting, pharmaceutic, and engineering organizations having as members at least a majority of the eligible licentiates in the area served by the particular society and any foundations composed of members of these societies”.

WASH is a South Carolina non-profit corporation that does business as an organ procurement organization and procures and distributes donor organs. WASH does not assert that it is an appointed committee under the statute, nor that it is a committee appointed by a professional society to maintain the professional standards of the society. WASH does not claim to have a majority of eligible licentiates in the area it serves (South Carolina), and it does not have more than a handful of professional licentiates of any type. The plain language of the statute clearly provides protection to committees appointed by a professional society to maintain the professional standards of the society. WASH is not a committee appointed to maintain the professional standards of a professional society, its documents and Ms. Welker’s knowledge regarding WASH’s investigations relating to Mr. Holliman’s death are therefore not subject to peer review privileged under § 40-71-20.

B. S.C. Code Ann. S.C. Code § 44-7-392

WASH next argues that it may properly invoke peer review privilege pursuant to § 44-7-392(A)(1), which states: “[a]ll proceedings of, and all data, documents, records, and information prepared or acquired by, a hospital licensed under this article, its parent, subsidiaries, health care system, committees, whether permanent or ad hoc, including the hospital's governing body, or physician practices owned by the hospital (its parent or subsidiaries) relating to the following are confidential” WASH does not assert that it is a hospital, or that it otherwise falls within the entities specifically described in the statute. Because WASH is not a hospital, nor any entity specifically described in the plain language of the statute, its documents and any knowledge Ms. Welker has about WASH’s investigations related to this case are not privileged under § 44-7-392.

C. Documents Provided to a Source which Could Invoke Peer Review Privilege

WASH next argues that some of its documents and the information sought during Ms. Welker’s deposition are privileged because they were shared with both Grand Strand Hospital and a committee of Defendant United Network Organ Sharing (“UNOS”). This argument does not extend protection to WASH. Both peer review statutes expressly provide that documents and information available from sources other than the hospital or committee protected by the statute are not immune from discovery from such other sources simply because they were presented to the hospital or the committee. Section 40-71-20(A) provides that “Information, documents, or records which are otherwise available from original sources are not immune from discovery or use in a civil action merely because they were presented during the committee proceedings” Likewise Section 44-7-392(A)(3) provides that “Data, documents, records, or information which are otherwise available from original sources are not confidential and are not immune from discovery from the original source under this section or use in a civil action merely because they were acquired by the hospital.”

In this context, the South Carolina Supreme Court has explained: “We interpret the ‘otherwise available’ language [of § 40-71-20] to mean that information that is available from a source other than the committee does not become privileged simply by being acquired by the review committee. Accordingly, the statute does not protect information if obtained from alternative sources.” McGee v. Bruce Hosp. Sys., 312 S.C. 58, 62, 439 S.E.2d 257, 260 (1993).

Therefore, even if WASH shared some of its documents and information with entities that, unlike WASH, are subject to a peer review statute, such documents and information are still subject to discovery from WASH pursuant to the plain language of the statutes.

2) Whether Public Policy Requires this Court to Grant WASH Peer Review Privilege

WASH next argues that the Court should extend peer review privilege under both Virginia state law and federal law, and that public policy favors doing so. Specifically, WASH, a South Carolina non-profit, asks the Court to extend the peer review protections provided by Virginia Code § 8.01-581.17, on the basis that Defendant UNOS is a Virginia entity and that Defendant UNOS required WASH to participate in the self-critical quality assurance and peer review process. WASH also argues public policy behind federal law, including the Patient Safety Quality Improvement Act of 2005 (“PSQIA”) promotes the extension of peer review privilege to organizations like WASH, even if the statute does not expressly do so. See 42 U.S.C.A. § 299b-22.

Under traditional South Carolina choice of law principles, the substantive law governing a tort action is determined by the lex loci delicti, the law of the state in which the injury occurred. Lister v. NationsBank of Delaware, N.A., 329 S.C. 133, 494 S.E.2d 449 (Ct. App. 1997); Bannister v. Hertz Corp., 316 S.C. 513, 450 S.E.2d 629 (Ct. App. 1994). However, South Carolina also recognizes a “public policy exception” to the enforcement of an out of state law. Boone v. Boone, 345 S.C. 8, 13, 546 S.E.2d 191, 193 (2001).

WASH, at length, implores this Court to extend peer review privilege on the basis of public policy. WASH claims that compelling the disclosure of these documents will lead to “an immediate, chilling effect on full, candid, self-critical assessment in violation of the clearly mandated South Carolina public policy for the same” and that permitting said disclosure of any documents provided to entities who could properly invoke the peer review privilege would “nullify the protections to which other entities are entitled and would undermine the privilege altogether”.

South Carolina indeed recognizes and encourages the policy of extending peer review privilege to promote qualitative review to improve patient care, and the South Carolina Supreme Court has held, “[t]he overriding public policy of the confidentiality statute is to encourage health care professionals to monitor the competency and professional conduct of their peers to safeguard and improve the quality of patient care.” Durham v. Vinson, 360 S.C. 639, 646, 602 S.E.2d 760, 763 (2004); McGee v. Bruce Hosp. Sys., 312 S.C. 58, 61, 439 S.E.2d 257, 259 (1993). While WASH’s public policy arguments are not without merit, under the plain meaning rule, it is not this Court’s place to change the meaning of a clear and unambiguous statute. In re Vincent J., 333 S.C. 233, 509

S.E.2d 261 (1998). Therefore, this Court declines to invoke the public policy exception to extend peer review privilege where the Legislature and the statutes at issue clearly did not do so.

Conclusion

Upon careful review, this Court finds that Defendant We Are Sharing Hope is not entitled to claim peer review privilege under South Carolina law, and this Court must effectuate the plain meaning of the statutes, rather than rely on the public policy exception to extent peer review privilege to new and unique entities. The Court therefore GRANTS the Plaintiff's Motion to Compel and DENIES Defendants Motions for Protective Orders.¹ The Court further orders that:

- 1) WASH produce all of the documents it has withheld on a claim of peer review privilege, which were submitted to the Court for an in camera review and which have been Bates-labeled WASH Privileged 0001-0335;
- 2) Ms. Welker's deposition be reconvened and that Ms. Welker answer all questions she was previously instructed not to answer as well as any related questions; and
- 3) WASH shall provide complete discovery responses to any discovery requests to which a claim of peer review privilege was asserted.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT Plaintiff's Motion to Compel is hereby granted, Defendants collective Motions for Protective Orders submitted in opposition are hereby DENIED, and Defendant We Are Sharing Hope shall produce the documents described herein within seven (7) days of this Court's Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

¹ The Court declines to award Plaintiff attorneys fees and costs pursuant to § 40-71-30, as the Court finds WASH had a good-faith basis for asserting the claim of confidentiality, and that said claim was not made unreasonably. ("In the event the court finds that a party acted unreasonably in unsuccessfully asserting the claim of confidentiality, the court shall assess attorney's fees against that party for any fees incurred by the requesting party in obtaining the documents.")

Appellant We Are Sharing Hope SC.

Jack G Gresh, of Dodds Hennessy & Stith, LLP, of Mount Pleasant; Lauren Spears Gresh, of Hall Booth Smith, PC, of Mount Pleasant; and Robert L. Widener of Burr and Forman, LLP, of Columbia, all for Appellant United Network for Organ Sharing.

John Carroll Moylan, III, Mary Lucille Dinkins, and James Hunter May, all of Wyche, PA, of Columbia; and Rachael Lewis Anna, of Wyche, PA, of Greenville, all for Respondent.

PER CURIAM: We Are Sharing Hope SC (WASH) and United Network for Organ Sharing appeal the circuit court's order denying their collective motions for a protective order and granting Michelle Cha Holliman's motion to compel WASH to produce documents withheld on a claim of peer review privilege. This order is not immediately appealable under section 44-7-394 of the South Carolina Code (2018) because WASH is not "a hospital or affected person." Accordingly, the appeal is dismissed pursuant to Rule 220(b), SCACR, and the following authorities: Grosshuesch v. Cramer, 377 S.C. 12, 30, 659 S.E.2d 112, 122 (2008) ("[D]iscovery orders, in general, are interlocutory and are not immediately appealable because they do not, within the meaning of the appealability statute, involve the merits of the action or affect a substantial right."); § 44-7-394(C) ("If the court orders a hospital or affected person to produce documents to a third party under this section, the hospital or affected person shall have the right to immediately appeal that order"); § 44-7-394(B) ("For purposes of this section an 'affected person' means a person" (emphasis added)).

This matter came before the Court on October 25, 2021 by way of the Defendant We Are Sharing Hope SC's ("Sharing Hope") Motions for Protective Orders for directing witnesses Michael Lotts, Lorraine Kemp, and Jeff Thomas not to answer questions involving their participation in the peer review process; Plaintiff Michelle Cha Holliman's Motion to Compel Defendant Sharing Hope seeking documents withheld on Sharing Hope's privilege log related to a CMS Survey; and Defendant Sharing Hope's Motion to Quash the Subpoena to CMS/Kathy Brazil and Request for Attorney's Fees. All of these motions were fully briefed before the Court. In addition, Plaintiff submitted memoranda regarding Sharing Hope's Motion for a Protective Order as to the Deposition of Dave DeStefano and Joint Motion to Stay filed by the Defendants Sharing Hope and the United Network for Organ Sharing.

After reviewing all memoranda submitted to the Court and considering all arguments, I find discovery in the above captioned case as it relates to the peer review process and documents withheld on Defendant Sharing Hope's privilege log which are currently on appeal is STAYED. Discovery as to matters other than the privilege issue may continue.

This case arises from an organ transplant given to Allen B. Holliman on November 27, 2018. Mr. Holliman unfortunately passed away due to the transplant lungs' incompatibility with his ABO blood type. Plaintiff Michelle Cha Holliman's (Mrs. Holliman) claims arise from the manner and method by which the transplant organs were identified and procured—a unique process that involves several different organizations who are part of the United States' Organ Procurement and Transplant Network ("OPTN"). The OPTN is the network established by federal statute and regulation responsible for the facilitation of organ recovery and transplantation throughout the United States. The Organ Procurement and Transplant Network is operated by the United Network for Organ Sharing ("UNOS"), who oversees and coordinates its various member transplant hospitals and Organ Procurement Organizations ("OPOs"). Sharing Hope is the designated OPO for organ recovery services in South Carolina, and it provides life-saving organ donor services to numerous hospitals throughout South Carolina.

Federal regulation specifically requires the OPTN to establish appropriate peer review processes for the purpose of evaluating its members' compliance with applicable federal regulations and OPTN policies, including member OPOs. 42 C.F.R. § 121.10. In furtherance of this obligation, UNOS created a Membership and Professional Standards Committee ("MPSC") which maintains membership criteria and monitors member compliance based on OPTN membership criteria, bylaws, and policies.

As the certified OPO for South Carolina, Defendant Sharing Hope was required to participate in medical peer review in connection with the donation case at issue. Accordingly, following Mr. Holliman's death, Sharing Hope and the MPSC engaged in a retrospective, self-critical quality assurance and peer review evaluation regarding Mr. Holliman's double lung transplant. Sharing Hope also engaged in a root cause analysis with the donor hospital which was conducted to identify the root causes of the incident for the goal of improving patient safety. Therefore, pursuant to the policies established by UNOS pursuant to 42 C.F.R. § 121.10, Sharing Hope and the MPSC (operated by UNOS) engaged in a self-critical quality assurance and peer review evaluation, the contents of which Sharing Hope contends are protected by the peer review privilege in South Carolina and Virginia as well as by the bylaws of the OPTN as promulgated under federal regulation. Judge McCaslin previously heard argument regarding Sharing Hope's privilege materials and by Order dated April 29, 2021, ordered Sharing Hope's privileged documents produced and denied Sharing Hope and UNOS's motions for protective orders. Defendant Sharing Hope filed a motion to stay Judge McCaslin's order and filed a Notice of Appeal in the South Carolina Court of Appeals on May 5, 2021. Defendant UNOS also filed a Notice of Appeal. Therefore, the peer review issue in this case is currently pending before the South Carolina Court of Appeals.

Sharing Hope has filed motions for protective orders as to Michael Lotts, Lorraine Kemp, Jeff Thomas, and Dave DeStefano because as employees and/or officers of Defendant Sharing Hope, they all participated in some aspect of the quality assurance and peer review process. Plaintiff's inquiry into Mr. Lotts', Ms. Kemp's, and Mr. Thomas' knowledge of information relating to this evaluation and Defendant Sharing Hope's instruction not to answer to as to preserve the privilege is the subject of the Motions for Protective Orders. Certain documents and communications prepared during the course of that self-critical quality assurance and peer review evaluation process along with other quality assurance materials were eventually provided to Kathy Brazil of CMS during the course of its investigation into the incident. Those records and related deposition testimony from Kathy Brazil of CMS are the subject of the Defendant Sharing Hope's Motion to Quash and also Plaintiff's Motion to Compel. Thus, all of the motions before me today involve materials which Sharing Hope contends are privileged and Plaintiff's efforts to seek those materials.

Defendant Sharing Hope argued that without an order limiting discovery of the privileged materials, it must repeatedly assert its privilege contention because Plaintiff continues to seek the same information through different sources. Plaintiff argued because other judges have denied Defendant's previous motions for protection and compelled production of Sharing Hope's privileged materials, this Court should follow suit. This Court declines to make a ruling as to the applicability of the ongoing privilege asserted by Defendant Sharing Hope because the matter is currently pending before the South Carolina Court of Appeals.

For the reasons set forth above, this Court Orders a Stay as to Discovery in the above captioned case regarding Sharing Hope's claimed privileged materials and testimony.

I find until the applicability of the peer-review privilege which has been asserted by Defendant Sharing Hope is decided by an Appellate Court in South Carolina, discovery regarding peer review privileged materials and testimony related to those materials is STAYED.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT discovery in the above captioned case is STAYED as it relates to the privileged materials. Discovery as to other matters may continue.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

COUNTY OF CHARLESTON

NINTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

Michelle Cha Holliman, individually and as personal representative of the Estate of Allen
B. Holliman,

Case No. 2020-CP-10-02902

Plaintiff,

vs.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO COMPEL AGAINST DEFENDANT
WE ARE SHARING HOPE SC

We Are Sharing Hope SC, Medical University of South Carolina, United Network for Organ
Sharing, Jacqueline Honig, M.D., and Darla
Welker,

Defendants.

Plaintiff Michelle Cha Holliman ("Mrs. Holliman"), individually and as personal representative of the Estate of Allen Holliman ("Mr. Holliman"), moves to compel Defendant We Are Sharing Hope SC ("WASH") to provide a complete response to Plaintiff's Request for Production Number 47.

BACKGROUND

This case arises out of Mr. Holliman's wrongful death following a lung transplant during which lungs of the wrong blood type were transplanted into him. WASH was the organ procurement organization that evaluated and distributed the donor whose lungs Mr. Holliman received (the "Donor"). WASH reported the wrong blood type for the Donor. WASH reported the Donor has having type O blood, but the Donor actually had type A blood. Mr. Holliman had type O blood, which is incompatible with type A blood. Mr. Holliman died the day after his transplant surgery because his body rejected the Donor's incompatible lungs.

Mrs. Holliman filed her notice of intent to sue in July 2019, and WASH has been trying to avoid its discovery obligations ever since. By way of example, WASH refused to produce any documents whatsoever at the beginning of this case for over a year until it was ordered to do so by the Court. WASH claimed that the documents could not be produced because of privacy concerns, but it also failed to consent to a confidentiality order to address those concerns. WASH has also withheld hundreds of pages documents on an improper claim of privilege that has been rejected by the Court twice. Rather than finally produce them, WASH filed an unauthorized interlocutory appeal. These are just two examples of many instances of discovery abuse by WASH.

Mrs. Holliman has had to expend considerable resources and effort trying to force WASH to produce a substantial portion of the documents it has turned over. So far, there have been at least 18 discovery motions between Mrs. Holliman and WASH, including motions to compel filed by Mrs. Holliman and motions for protection from discovery filed by WASH, and with the exception of getting a few requests to a non-party subpoena recipient narrowed by a Virginia court, WASH has not prevailed on any of them. Despite this, WASH keeps withholding relevant documents without justification (as with the documents at issue in this motion), keeps asserting failed privilege claims, and keeps instructing deponents not to answer questions on the basis of a purported privilege that is unsupported by law and has already been rejected by the Court.

ANALYSIS

Mrs. Holliman is forced to file this latest motion in order to obtain relevant documents that have been unreasonably withheld in response to Plaintiff's Request for Production Number 47. That Request calls for the production of all documents and communications relating to a complaint survey conducted by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services ("CMS") of WASH as a result of Mr. Holliman's death. See Plaintiff's Second Set of Supplemental Requests for Production, attached as Exhibit "A". The Request specifically asks for "all emails, text messages, notes, or memos of employees” of WASH relating to CMS’ survey. See id. Mrs. Holliman served the Request on February 23, 2021—almost seven months ago—but still has not received any documents in response to it.

WASH’s response to Request 47 states:

This Defendant objects to this Request pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 299b-22; 42 CFR §§ 401.101-401.152; CMS Memo, S&C-10-01-ALL, Oct. 2, 2009, and to the extent this Request seeks any peer review/quality assurance materials. Without waiving theses objection, this Defendant is reviewing documents related to the complaint survey conducted in May of 2019 and will supplement this response.

See WASH’s responses to Plaintiff’s Second Set of Supplemental Production, attached as Exhibit “B”. WASH’s objections lack merit, and WASH has failed to supplement the response as it stated it would.

42 U.S.C. § 299b-22 sets forth a narrow privilege for “patient safety work product,” which are certain documents reported to or developed by “patient safety organizations.” 42 U.S.C. §§ 299b-21 and 22. To qualify as a “patient safety organization” under the statute, an entity must be listed as such by the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality. 42 U.S.C. § 299b-21(4). There are currently 95 patient safety organizations, and WASH is not one of them. <https://www.pso.ahrq.gov/pso/listed>. 42 C.F.R. §§ 401.101-152 are federal regulations that govern disclosures of records by CMS. See id. Lastly, the 2009 CMS memo cited by WASH in its objection relates to CMS’ handling of subpoenas. https://www.cms.gov/Medicare/Provider-Enrollment-and-Certification/SurveyCertificationGenInfo/downloads/SCLetter10_01.pdf. Thus, none of the authorities cited in WASH’s objection to Request 47 render documents in WASH’s possession privileged, or even have anything to do with WASH. WASH’s reliance on these authorities is misplaced, confusing, and clearly lacks any basis.

Similarly, WASH’s objection based on a non-specific claim of “peer review/quality assurance” lacks merit. In fact, Judge McCaslin has already held in this case that WASH is not subject to either of South Carolina’s peer review statutes. See Judge McCaslin’s Discovery Order, attached as Exhibit “C”.

On September 8, 2021, Mrs. Holliman’s counsel deposed WASH’s Director of Quality, Lorraine Kemp. When answering questions regarding CMS’ complaint survey of WASH conducted as a result of Mr. Holliman’s death, Ms. Kemp testified that a former employee named Martha Harrison took notes during CMS’ on-site visit at WASH.¹ Ms. Kemp further stated that she has copies of Ms. Harrison’s notes in her file. Ms. Harrison’s notes regarding CMS’ complaint survey of WASH are directly responsive to Request 47, but they have not been produced.

Mrs. Holliman’s counsel emailed WASH’s attorney the day of Ms. Kemp’s deposition and requested for WASH to produce Ms. Harrison’s notes by September 13, 2021, as well as any other documents regarding CMS’ on-site survey of WASH. See email from Ms. Dinkins to Ms. Jennings, attached as Exhibit “D”. The afternoon of September 13, 2021, WASH’s attorney emailed Mrs. Holliman’s counsel and requested an additional day to respond regarding the deficiencies with WASH’s response to Request 47, which Mrs. Holliman’s attorney granted. See emails between Ms. Jennings and Ms. Dinkins, attached as “Exhibit E”. Mrs. Holliman’s attorneys have heard nothing further from WASH’s counsel, and WASH still has not provided any supplemental response to the Request.

CONCLUSION

WASH’s assertion of baseless purported privileges and its continued failure to produce Ms. Harrison’s notes regarding CMS’ complaint survey of WASH is a continuation of WASH’s pattern of withholding documents and information and avoiding its discovery obligations. Mrs. Holliman should not be required to file a motion to compel almost every time she requests documents from WASH relevant to this wrongful death case. Mrs. Holliman respectfully requests for the Court to enter an Order compelling WASH to:

- (1) Conduct a thorough search for all documents and communications responsive to Mrs. Holliman Request for Production Number 47; and
- (2) Produce all documents responsive to the Request, including but not limited to Ms. Harrison's notes.

Respectfully submitted,

Wyche, P.A.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA
CHARLESTON DIVISION

Aaliyah Patterson,
Administratrix of the Estate of Joe Patterson,

Plaintiff,

V.

We Are Sharing Hope SC; United Network for Organ Sharing; Elizabeth Davies, M.D.; Jacqueline Honig, M.D.; and Darla Welker, Defendants.

C/A No. 2:21-cv-01242-BHH

ORDER

This is a civil action alleging negligence-based claims arising out of a liver transplant where decedent Joe Patterson received a donor's liver that was incompatible with his blood type. Plaintiff's Complaint alleges claims against the following Defendants: (1) We Are Sharing Hope Network SC ("Sharing Hope"), the designated organ procurement organization ("OPO") for South Carolina that provides organ and tissue recovery services in South Carolina; (2) United Network for Organ Sharing ("UNOS"), the organization that serves as the organ transplant system in the United States known as the Organ Procurement and Transplantation Network under a contract with the federal government; (3) Elizabeth Davies, M.D., the transplant surgeon employed by Vanderbilt University Medical Center who participated in the organ procurement surgery; (4) Jacqueline Honig, M.D., Sharing Hope Network's medical director; and (5) Darla Welker, a Sharing Hope employee and administrator who verifies and approves the determination and reporting of donor blood types.

Before the Court are two motions: (1) Plaintiff's Motion for Clarification that Documents Produced by Non-party Subpoena Recipient United States Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services Are Not Privileged, ECF No. 57; and (2) a Motion for a Protective Order filed by Defendant Sharing Hope pursuant to Rules 26(c) and 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, ECF No. 58. Both Motions have been fully briefed and are ripe for review. See ECF Nos. 57, 58, 59, 61, 62, 65, 66, and 71.

The Motions were referred to the undersigned for adjudication. ECF No. 69. For the reasons set forth below, Plaintiff's Motion is denied, without prejudice, and Sharing Hope's Motion is granted, in part, and denied, in part.

BACKGROUND

This case arises from a liver transplant provided to decedent Joe Patterson from a South Carolina donor (the "Donor") whose organs were managed by Sharing Hope, the designated OPO for South Carolina. Sharing Hope reported the Donor as having type O blood, which is Mr. Patterson's blood type. Shortly after Mr. Patterson's liver transplant, the hospital that received the Donor's pancreas tested the Donor's blood and discovered that the Donor actually had type A blood. Type A blood is incompatible with type O blood. Therefore, Mr. Patterson received an ABO incompatible donor liver and had to undergo a second liver transplant.

The Donor whose liver was given to Mr. Patterson also gave her lungs for transplant to Allen B. Holliman and her heart to Ykeiah Lawrence. Like Mr. Patterson, Mr. Holliman and Ms. Lawrence's blood types were incompatible with the Donor's blood type, and each of these three separate transplants has led to negligence actions. This case was filed in this Court pursuant to diversity jurisdiction, but the Holliman and Lawrence cases are currently pending in the Charleston County Court of Common Pleas.¹ The plaintiffs in the three cases are all represented by the same counsel, and Sharing Hope is represented by the same defense counsel in all three cases.

¹ See Holliman v. We Are Sharing Hope SC, C/A No. 2020-CP-10-02902 (Charleston Ct. C.P.); Lawrence v. We Are Sharing Hope SC, C/A No. 2021-CP-10-02033 (Charleston Ct. C.P.).

Following Mr. Patterson's transplant and the transplants in the related cases, Sharing Hope and the Membership and Professional Standards Committee ("MPSC") (operated by UNOS) engaged in a self-critical quality assurance and peer-review evaluation, pursuant to UNOS's requirements. Sharing Hope also conducted a Root Cause Analysis with the Donor Hospital. The United States Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services ("CMS") subsequently conducted an unannounced complaint survey of Sharing Hope in May 2019. During the course of the investigation, Sharing Hope provided documents requested by CMS, including certain peer review materials.

Mr. Patterson filed his Notice of Intent to Sue on October 22, 2020, and served Sharing Hope by process server on October 29, 2020. While this case was pending under the Notice of Intent phase, and after Plaintiff served Sharing Hope with the Notice of Intent, Plaintiff served four subpoenas on non-parties pursuant to Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, including a subpoena directed to CMS seeking information and communications with or regarding Sharing Hope, UNOS, and the non-party Donor. See ECF Nos. 57-2, 57-3.

It is undisputed that Plaintiff did not provide Sharing Hope with prior notice of the subpoenas as required by Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.² See ECF No. 61 at 1 & n.2. Sharing Hope did not learn of the subpoenas until over four months later, on or about March 23, 2021. See ECF No. 57-6.

According to Sharing Hope, a portion of the materials provided to Plaintiff by CMS were protected peer review materials originally generated and exchanged between Sharing Hope and UNOS's MPSC and the Root Cause Analysis with the Donor Hospital. See ECF No. 58 at 11.

² Pursuant to Rule 45, "[i]f the subpoena commands the production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things or the inspection of premises before trial, then before it is served on the person to whom it is directed, a notice and a copy of the subpoena must be served on each party." Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(a)(4).

Sharing Hope asserts that while it was required to provide these materials to CMS as part of CMS's investigation, it did not intend to waive its privilege in complying with the law and that it would have objected to the subpoena to protect its privilege, had it received prior notice of the subpoena. Id. at 11–12. Plaintiff argues that Sharing Hope did not suffer any prejudice from the lack of notice of the subpoenas because Sharing Hope is not covered by any peer review privilege. ECF No. 61 at 2–3.

LEGAL STANDARD

Federal district courts are vested with broad discretion in resolving disputes regarding the scope and conduct of discovery. Columbus–Am. Discovery Grp. v. Atl. Mut. Ins. Co., 56 F.3d 556, 568 n.16 (4th Cir. 1995); Erdmann v. Preferred Research, Inc. of Ga., 852 F.2d 788, 792 (4th Cir. 1988).

Pursuant to Rule 26(b)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, [p]arties may obtain discovery regarding any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party's claim or defense and proportional to the needs of the case, considering the importance of the issues at stake in the action, the amount in controversy, the parties' relative access to relevant information, the parties' resources, the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues, and whether the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit. Information within this scope of discovery need not be admissible in evidence to be discoverable.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1).

“On motion or on its own, the court must limit the frequency or extent of discovery otherwise allowed by these rules or by local rule if it determines that . . . the proposed discovery is outside the scope permitted by Rule 26(b)(1).” Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(2)(C)(iii). Moreover, the “court may, for good cause, issue an order to protect a party or person from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense, including,” among other actions, forbidding the disclosure of discovery, forbidding inquiry into certain matters, or limiting the scope of disclosure or discovery to certain matters. Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c)(1)(A) & (D).

“[T]he scope of discovery allowed under a subpoena is the same as the scope of discovery allowed under Rule 26.” HDSherer LLC v. Nat. Molecular Testing Corp., 292 F.R.D. 305, 308 (D.S.C. 2013); see Cook v. Howard, 484 F. App’x 805, 812 (4th Cir. 2012) (per curiam) (“Although Rule 45(c) sets forth additional grounds on which a subpoena against a third party may be quashed, . . . those factors are co-extensive with the general rules governing all discovery that are set forth in Rule 26.”). Any party or person from whom discovery is sought may move for a protective order in the court where the action is pending. Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c)(1); see also Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(3) (listing grounds upon which a court for the district where compliance with a subpoena is required must quash or modify a subpoena, including where a subpoena requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter).

DISCUSSION

At issue before this Court is whether documents obtained by Plaintiff in this case pursuant to a subpoena served on CMS are privileged under South Carolina statutory law. Plaintiff has moved for an order finding that they are not privileged under either of South Carolina’s two peer review statutes: S.C. Code §§ 40-71-20 and 44-7-392. See ECF No. 57 at 6–9. Sharing Hope, on the other hand, argues that the documents are privileged under both of those statutes, see ECF No. 58 at 5–6 & 14, and has moved for a protective order “prohibiting further attempts to discover, use, or disseminate materials or information related to Sharing Hope’s peer review activities during any future chapter of this case including both discovery and trial,” id. at 15.

The parties have made similar arguments in the Holliman case pending in state court, and the issue of whether the documents arising from Sharing Hope’s peer-review evaluation and Root Cause Analysis are privileged under South Carolina law is currently on appeal before the South Carolina Court of Appeals. See Holliman v. We Are Sharing Hope SC, Appellate Case No. 2021-000487 (S.C. Ct. Appeals) (appeal of April 29, 2021 trial court order finding that Sharing Hope is not entitled to claim peer review privilege under South Carolina law and declining to invoke the public policy exception to extend the peer review privilege). In November 2021, the state trial court issued an Order staying discovery as to the privilege issue and testimony related to those materials pending resolution of the interlocutory appeal by the Court of Appeals. See Order of J. Young, Holliman, 2020CP1002902 (Charleston Ct. C.P., Nov. 5, 2021). Discovery as to other matters is ongoing. Id.

This case is pending before this Court by virtue of the Court’s diversity jurisdiction. “The essence of diversity jurisdiction is that a federal court enforces State law and State policy.” Angel v. Bullington, 330 U.S. 183, 191 (1947). Thus, “a federal court adjudicating a state-created right solely because of the diversity of citizenship of the parties is for that purpose, in effect, only another court of the State.” Guar. Tr. Co. of N.Y. v. York, 326 U.S. 99, 108 (1945); see Fessler v. Int’l Bus. Machines Corp., 959 F.3d 146, 153 (4th Cir. 2020) (same).

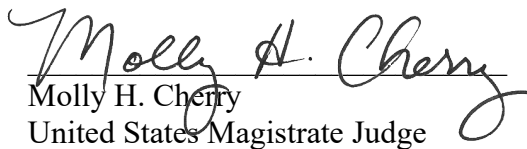

In light of the unique circumstances presented by the facts and procedural history of this case—in particular, that the Holliman appeal currently pending before the South Carolina Court of Appeals concerns the same documents and precise claims of privilege also asserted in this case—the Court declines to make a ruling at this time as to the applicability of the privilege asserted by Sharing Hope in this case. By virtue of its diversity jurisdiction, this Court is, in effect, sitting as another trial court of the State. See York, 326 U.S. at 108. Just as the trial court in the Holliman case found it necessary to stay certain discovery pending resolution of this specific issue by the South Carolina Court of Appeals, this Court also concludes that resolution of this state law issue is better left to the State appellate court before which the precise issue is currently pending.

Accordingly, the Court finds good cause to grant, in part, Sharing Hope's request for a Protective Order. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(2)(C)(iii), 26(c)(1)(A) & (D). Specifically, the Court ORDERS that, until the South Carolina Court of Appeals issues an opinion regarding the applicability of the peer-review privilege that has been asserted by Defendant Sharing Hope or otherwise dismisses the pending appeal of that issue, discovery regarding the purported peer review privileged materials and testimony related to those materials is STAYED in this case. The Court declines to make a determination at this time about the applicability of the state-law peer review privilege or as to whether Sharing Hope has been prejudiced by any Rule 45 notice violation. Within thirty days after the South Carolina Court of Appeals issues its decision in, or otherwise dismisses, the Holliman appeal, the parties are to notify this Court of the outcome of that case and may re-file their motions as to those issues at that time.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, the Court DENIES, without prejudice, Plaintiff's Motion for Clarification (ECF No. 57). The Court GRANTS, in part, and DENIES, in part and without prejudice, Defendant Sharing Hope's Motion for Protective Order (ECF No. 58). Discovery regarding the purported peer review privileged materials and testimony related to those materials is STAYED in this case until further order by the Court. Discovery as to other matters may continue at this time.
