Ravenel Gaskins (deceased), Employee,.....Respondent.

v.

Johnny Gaskins Trim, Employer, and Accident Insurance Co., Carrier.....Appellants.

JOINT MOTION FOR LEAVE TO SUBMIT SETTLEMENT

WILL YOU PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Appellants Johnny Gaskins Trim and Accident Insurance Company by and through their undersigned attorney do hereby move pursuant to South Carolina Appellate Court Rule 240 for an Order from the Court granting leave to the interested parties to file their terms of settlement (hereinafter referred to as "Final Lump Sum Agreement and Release") with the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission (hereinafter referred to as "Commission"), for approval of the same. Moreover the interested parties do hereby further move for an Order from the Court, wherein any and all filing deadlines and time relating to the above named matter be held in abeyance for a reasonable amount of time for purposes of filing the Final Lump Sum Agreement and Release with the Commission for approval. Specifically, the parties request that any oral argument be held in abeyance pending the approval of the Final Lump Sum Agreement and Release. The grounds for the Motion are as follows:

1. That Appellants timely filed a Notice of Appeal with this Court;
2. That the interested parties have agreed to settlement terms and are in the process of filing the Final Lump Sum Agreement and Release with the Commission for approval of the same; and
3. That the Final Lump Sum Agreement and Release shall be approved upon its filing with the Commission; the interested parties will submit a copy of the Final Lump Sum Agreement and Release that has been stamped as "filed" by the Commission to this Court for approval of the same; further requesting that this Court dismiss the appeal and remand jurisdiction of the same to the Commission for final disposition.

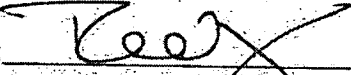

WHEREFORE, Appellants and Respondent respectfully request that this Court issue an Order granting leave for the parties to file the aforementioned Final Lump sum Agreement and Release with the Commission for approval of the same. Moreover, the interested parties respectfully request that any and all filing deadlines and time relating to the above named matter, including the pending scheduling of the oral arguments be held in abeyance for a reasonable amount of time for purposes of filing the Final Lump Sum Agreement and Release with the Commission for approval. No Final Lump Sum Agreement and Release shall be approved upon its filing with the Commission. As such, the interested parties further respectfully request that this Court issue an Order formally dismissing the above named matter and remanding jurisdiction of the same to the Commission for file disposition upon its receipt of a copy of the Final Lump Sum Agreement and Release that has been stamped as "filed" by the Commission.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED:

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

This letter is in reference to the above named workers' compensation claim and pending appeal before this Honorable Court. Please be advised that the parties for this matter have reached a settlement agreement. In that respect, we are requesting leave to submit settlement to the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission. By the Respondent's Attorney's signature on the enclosed Motion, he is joining me in this request to dismiss the above named matter and remand jurisdiction to the Commission for final disposition. Please contact me should you require any additional information to process the Motion. I have enclosed a check in the amount of $25.00 representing the requisite filing fee. Thank you for your time and attention to this matter.

Very truly yours.

Kathryn F. Walton
