Re: State of South Carolina v. Quincy Wright
Appellate Case No. 2012-212692

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

The Anders brief of appellant and record on appeal in the above case were served and filed on April 9, 2013. However, as evidenced by the enclosed affidavit, Mr. Wright has elected to drop his appeal. I have discussed the issues of dropping the appeal with Mr. Wright both verbally and in writing. Because Mr. Wright's decision to drop his direct appeal is knowing, intelligent, and voluntary after thoroughly discussing the advantages and disadvantages of pursuing a direct appeal, I respectfully request that the Court issue an order dismissing Mr. Wright's appeal.

By copy of this letter, I am informing Salley W. Elliott of the Office of the Attorney General of Mr. Wright's decision.

Thank you for your time and assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Pachak
Appellate Defender

IN THE SOUTH CAROLINA COURT OF APPEALS

AFFIDAVIT

PERSONALLY appeared before me, Quincy Wright, who being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am the appellant in the above captioned case.
2. I understand that I am entitled to an appeal of my conviction, and that, because I am indigent, I am entitled to the assistance of an attorney from the South Carolina Office of Appellate Defense. I have been informed that if I drop my direct appeal that I forever waive those issues that could be raised.
3. In light of the risks which have been explained to me, it is my desire that the South Carolina Office of Appellate Defense drop the appeal formerly filed on my behalf.
4. I have made this decision on my own, with a full understanding of all the possible consequences of this action.
5. I do not wish to appeal.
