RE: Alonzo C. Jeter, III #282902 v South Carolina Dept of Corrections
Case No. 2023-001508

Dear Honorable Clerk:

On October 20, 2023, I received an Order of this Court which dismisses my appeal / this case based on my failure to serve and file a petition for a writ of certiorari. My appeal was filed timely on Sept. 22, 2023.

Please do consider taking a second look at my notice of appeal and that I explained that my case in the South Carolina Court of Appeals was not heard, adjudicated, nor dismissed on the merits - but rather was dismissed based solely upon my inability to afford the filing fee. Thus, I did also file a Motion To Proceed In Forma Pauperis in this case along with the Notice of Appeal and the notice of the / my circumstances.

Your office never provided an order granting, nor denying

Based on this, please do reconsider your dismissal and please do ask that the South Carolina Court of Appeals ^{recall} rescind its Remittitur

Please note, on September 27, 2023, I was transferred from MacDougall Correctional to Evans Correctional.

My current mailing address above is ~~was~~ where the Remittitur was mailed, while the previous address is where your September 25, 2023 order was mailed.

I pray for your understanding in this regard. As an additional issue on Petition for Certiorari Review I intend to question the dismissal ^{based} on indigency.
Please do provide me a file-stamped copy of this request as I am without means, to serve Respected until file-stamped.

Sincerely,

Alenzo C. Jeter, III

Please do excuse/forgive my etiquette in filing - I am limited in the supplies I have for perfecting the process.

This 26th day of October, 2023.
