Mr. Radeker,

We apologize for the transcript not being complete. These are the instructions we got from the state related to this matter:

I have attached a transcript request for a hearing in the above referenced matter. The hearing dated March 1, 2023 was heard via BIS and the audio starts at 10:35:28 and stops at 10:48:14.

We have copied our contact at the state on this email so they may investigate the missing audio. As soon as we receive it, we will put it right into production. Thank you.

This transcript is not complete. The hearing resumed, and we heard the summary judgment motion and testimony from Ms. Gibson. The transcript you just sent indicates that the hearing was not, in fact, concluded at 10:48 a.m. as the end of the transcript states.

Thank you.
