Re: Demetrius J. Smalls v. Charleston County Sheriff's Office
Appellate Case No. 2013-001520

Dear Counsel:

Upon reviewing your notice of appeal, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter:

- The documents you have filed do not include a proof of service that is in compliance with the SCACR. Your proof of service should be substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR. The proof of service should include the name of the document you have served and must clearly identify the name and address of the party you are serving.
- The caption/title does not comply with Rule 267(a), SCACR. Specifically, the caption should include only those parties as they are listed in the caption on the lower court order that you are appealing.
- The notice of appeal is not accompanied by the order(s) and/or judgment(s) challenged on appeal.
- The notice of appeal fails to include a statement of when you received written notice of entry of the order or judgment from which this appeal is taken.
- The required filing fee has not been submitted. The correct filing fee is $100.

- You must serve and file an amended notice of appeal that does not include your arguments. The title of the notice that you file must include the word "amended" and must include only the information as shown in appendix C of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

Very truly yours,

CLERK
