William Haynes, as Personal Representative of the Estate
of Elizabeth Varner, Appellant,

v.

THI of South Carolina at Charleston, LLC d/b/a Riverside Health and Rehab, Respondent.

and

William Haynes, as Personal Representative of the Estate
of Elizabeth Varner, Appellant,

v.

Fundamental Administrative Services, LLC; Fundamental Clinical and Operational Services, LLC;
and Jerrolyn Montgomery-Small, Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2023-001212

ORDER

After careful consideration of the petition for rehearing, the Court is unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law has been either overlooked or disregarded, and hence, there is no basis for granting a rehearing. See Toler's Cove Homeowners Ass'n, Inc. v. Trident Const. Co., 355 S.C. 605, 610-11, 586 S.E.2d 581, 584 (2003) (finding "the substantive law of the FAA applie[d] to the parties' arbitration agreement," but finding the order was not immediately appealable because our state procedural rule "that a South Carolina court's order compelling arbitration is not immediately appealable" did not invalidate or undermine the goals or policies of the FAA). Accordingly, the petition for rehearing is denied.
