Re: Katrina Morrison v. State of South Carolina
Appellate Case No. 2023-000703

Dear Ms. Morrison:

Upon reviewing your initial brief of appellant and designation of matter, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or this matter will be dismissed:

- The initial brief of appellant is not filed in compliance with Rule 208(b)(1) of the SCACR. You must include a cover page, table of contents, statement of issues on appeal, statement of the case, standard of review, argument, and conclusion in your brief. Designated items should not be filed in the brief. These will be included into the record on appeal.
- A proof of service has not been provided. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.
- You must separate the designation of matter from the initial brief.

Very truly yours,
