Yes, I received notice that you got my request for extension on Nov. 13th. I'm trying to get it to you by this next week. I didn't get a reply about the extension. I think I did everything in my request as you suggested I do. I also copied Dudek.

When I touched base a couple of days ago I mentioned I noted in some of the papers I found, some were jointly filed by past atty. Lir Derieg and also Dudek in August which I hadn't noticed. I was just wondering if he was already following the case before I was advised to seek legal help for the indigent. I don't want to write too much, but it is VERY important they understand the reason I had to appeal. My evidence clearly proves this alleged verbal agreement never happened as suggested. Lir Derieg never shared any facts with the solicitor, judge or allowed me to do so. I have all the evidence. I will explain when I send the reason for appeal. I need an attorney so badly. I am doing my best and apologize for not having computer access and being ill. I will do my best to get this in by next week. Thank you Catherine.

If you could give me a call on Monday morning, I'd appreciate it. God bless.

Attn: Catherine Harrison

Due to both sickness and circumstances, I am requesting an extension of time allowed to provide reasons for my motion to appeal the guilty plea and sentencing in my case. My motion was filed in Feb. 2023.

I very much appreciate your kind assistance. I am copying Robert M. Dudek, Chief Appellate Defender, on this request as you stated.

Sincerely,

Roland Green

Thank you.
