Dear Ms. Kitchings. When we spoke with Judge McDonald this morning in the courtroom, she indicated that they would give the parties additional time to argue both cases at the same time, because of the complexity of the issues and the two separate appeals (perhaps 20-20-10). I understand that we are currently the first case of the morning, starting at 10:00 a.m. I would suggest that we possibly switch our case with the 12:00 case that morning, if that would work. It looks like both attorneys in the 12:00 case are from Columbia. I am available all day and would appreciate a later start to try to avoid some of the traffic coming in on I-26 during rush hour. Thank you.
