

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Justin McGee, Respondent

v.

Lindsay F. McGee, Petitioner.

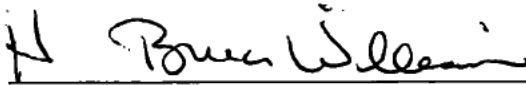

Appellate Case No. 2023-001376

---

ORDER

---

Petitioner has filed motions requesting to supplement the record and the reply she filed in response to Respondent's return to her motion to suppress evidence. Petitioner's motions are granted. See Rule 15(d), SCRPC ("Upon motion of a party the court may, upon reasonable notice and upon such terms as are just, permit him to serve a supplemental pleading . . ."); Tanner v. Florence Cnty. Treasurer, 336 S.C. 552, 558, 521 S.E.2d 153, 156 (1999) ("Even though a supplemental pleading is technically different than a motion to amend the pleadings . . . the standard for granting or denying these motions is the same."); Rule 15(a), SCRPC ("[L]eave [to amend a pleading] shall be freely given when justice so requires and does not prejudice any other party."); Rule 26(d), SCRPC ("Unless the court upon motion, for the convenience of the parties and witnesses and in the interests of justice, orders otherwise, methods of discovery may be used in any sequence . . ."); Scott v. Greenville Hous. Auth., 353 S.C. 639, 652, 579 S.E.2d 151, 158 (Ct. App. 2003) ("The gist and gravamen of the discovery rules mandate full and fair disclosure to prevent a trial from becoming a guessing game or one of ambush for either party.").
