ATTORNEYS FOR THE RECEIVER

Peter D. Protopapas, the Receiver for the insurance assets of Asbestos Corporation Limited (the “Receiver”), submits this Motion to Dismiss the Petition for Supersedeas filed by Appellant Asbestos Corporation Limited (“ACL”).

INTRODUCTION

ACL’s petition for supersedeas, together with its alternative request that this Court “confirm” an automatic stay and/or that the Receiver “lacks jurisdiction,” are the latest in a series of efforts by ACL to obstruct and delay the ability of the Receiver to identify and marshal insurance assets of ACL that provide coverage for claims brought by asbestos plaintiffs in South Carolina. ACL follows the playbook of its affiliate, Atlas Turner, Inc. (“Atlas”), which is represented by the same counsel. Atlas filed a nearly identical petition for supersedeas and request to “confirm” an automatic stay—which the Court properly denied in its December 1, 2023 order. See Ex. A, Dec. 1, 2023 Order, Appellate Case No. 2023-001096. For the same reasons, the Court should dismiss ACL’s petition here.

First, like Atlas, ACL failed to first move for supersedeas in the circuit court below, as required by Rule 241(d)(1), SCACR. And, like Atlas, ACL fails to show that any “extraordinary circumstances” made it impracticable for ACL to seek supersedeas in the circuit court in the first instance. Accordingly, ACL’s petition—like Atlas’s—should be dismissed as procedurally defective.

Second, as with Atlas’s request for an “automatic stay,” ACL’s alternative request that this Court “confirm” an automatic stay, and/or rule that the Receiver “lacks jurisdiction,” are based on arguments regarding Rules 241(a) and 205, SCACR, that this Court recently considered and rejected in the Payne & Keller receivership action. See Ex. B, Sept. 8, 2023 Order, Appellate Case No. 2023-000727 and Ex. C, Nov. 21, 2023 Order, Appellate Case No. 2023-000727. As this Court ruled in its September 8, 2023 Payne & Keller order, South Carolina receivership actions are not stayed—and a receiver can continue to carry out its court-appointed duties—during the pendency of an appeal, pursuant to Rule 62(a), SCRCP, and S.C. Code Ann. § 14-3-450 (2017). See Ex. B. Indeed, this Court recently denied a motion by the appellants in Payne & Keller asking the Court to reconsider its September 8 ruling and to “enforce Rule 205.” See Ex. C. There is no reason for a different result here.

ACL’s procedurally defective petition for supersedeas, as well as its alternative request premised on discredited legal arguments, are part of an ongoing scheme by ACL to hide insurance that it has available to pay asbestos claims in South Carolina. The Receiver respectfully requests that this Court dismiss ACL’s petition and confirm that the underlying receivership action and the Receiver’s pursuit of his court-appointed duties to identify and marshal ACL’s insurance assets should continue during ACL’s appeal.

BACKGROUND

By order dated September 8, 2023, the circuit court appointed the Receiver for ACL, granting him “the power and authority [to] fully administer all inserts assets of [ACL] and take any and all steps necessary to protect the interests of ACL whatever they may be.” Ex. D, Sept. 8, 2023 Order Granting Plaintiffs’ Motion to Appoint a Receiver at 6. The Receiver’s charge is to “investigate the existence of all insurance or indemnification coverages or claims relating thereto which are potentially available to ACL.” Id. at 7.

In opposing the appointment of the Receiver, ACL repeatedly represented to the circuit court that it has no insurance available to respond to the South Carolina asbestos claims. However, since his appointment, the Receiver has uncovered evidence that ACL currently finances its U.S. asbestos litigation with hundreds of millions of excess layers of insurance coverage. By filing this defective, meritless motion, ACL continues to seek to prevent the Receiver and the circuit court from uncovering the truth about its insurance assets.

ARGUMENT

A. ACL’s Supersedeas Petition Is Procedurally Defective Under Rule 241(d)(1)

This Court should dismiss ACL’s petition for supersedeas as procedurally defective for the same reason it dismissed the supersedeas petition of ACL’s affiliate, Atlas. See Ex A. ACL was required to submit its petition to the circuit court in the first instance pursuant to Rule 241(d)(1), SCACR—which ACL admits it did not do. ACL’s Pet., at 15 n.13 (“ACL recognizes that Rule 241(d)(1) provides that, ‘[e]xcept where extraordinary circumstances make it impracticable, an application ... for supersedeas must first be made to the lower court or administrative tribunal which entered the order or decision on appeal”).

As with Atlas’s defective petition, there are no “extraordinary circumstances” present here that made it impracticable for ACL to have first made its supersedeas petition to the circuit court. On this point, ACL’s petition simply cuts-and-pastes from Atlas’s—arguing that “the combination of this alternative request for supersedeas with ACL’s primary request for confirmation of the automatic stay” under Rule 241(a) makes it “impracticable to first pursue supersedeas in the lower court and/or there is otherwise good cause for this Court to consider the within petition for supersedeas in the interests of justice and judicial economy.” Id.

As the Court recognized in its order dismissing Atlas’s petition, these are not “extraordinary circumstances” under Rule 241(d)(1):

Appellant [Atlas]’s motion to “confirm” the automatic stay or, alternatively, petition for supersedeas is denied. Appellant failed to petition the circuit court first or to satisfactorily establish that extraordinary circumstances made it impracticable to do so. See Rule 241(d)(1), SCACR (“Except where extraordinary circumstances make it impracticable, an application for an order lifting the automatic stay or for supersedeas must first be made to the lower court.”). Because Appellant did not first petition the circuit court to supersede its order, the petition is denied.

Ex. A (emphasis added).

Indeed, Rule 241 expressly recognizes that “[t]he issuance of an ex parte order or decision, or an unnecessary delay by the lower court or administrative tribunal in ruling on this application shall constitute an extraordinary circumstance.” Rule 241(d)(1), SCACR. Like Atlas, ACL has not alleged any such circumstances exist here. As such, ACL’s petition for supersedeas likewise should be dismissed as procedurally defective.

B. There Is No Automatic Stay of the Receivership Action, and the Receiver’s Court-Appointed Duties Continue During ACL’s Appeal

As noted, ACL, like Atlas, attempts to explain its failure to seek supersedeas in the circuit court by arguing that this Court already must decide ACL’s motion seeking to “confirm” that there is an automatic stay pursuant to Rule 241(a). See ACL’s Petition, at 15 n.13. According to ACL, a dispute over whether there is an automatic stay must be decided by this Court—so this Court should decide ACL’s supersedeas petition too. See id. However, ACL’s request to “confirm” an automatic stay, and its challenge to the continuing jurisdiction of the circuit court and the Receiver, are without merit. As this Court recognized in prior orders in receivership actions addressing the same arguments, there is no genuine dispute that South Carolina law provides that receivership actions are not automatically stayed, and that the court-appointed work of a receiver continues, during an appeal.

Rule 241(a), SCACR, provides that “[a]s a general rule, the service of a notice of appeal in a civil matter acts to automatically stay matters decided in the order, judgment, decree or decision on appeal, and to automatically stay the relief ordered in that appealed order, judgment, or decree or decision.” However, Rule 241(b) recognizes that “exceptions to the general rule are found in statutes, court rules, and case law.” This Court’s September 8, 2023 order in Payne & Keller recognized the applicability of two specific exceptions for receivership actions, pursuant to Rule 62(a), SCRCP, and S.C. Code Ann. § 14-30-450 (2017):

[T]he March 31, 2023 order [on appeal in the Payne & Keller receivership action] is not stayed during the pendency of this appeal. See Rule 62(a), SCRCP (“Unless ordered by the court, an interlocutory or final judgment in an action for an injunction or in a receivership action ... shall not be stayed during the period after its entry and until an appeal is taken or during the pendency of an appeal”); S.C. Code Ann. § 14-3-450 (2017) (“In case of an appeal under item (4) of Section 14-3-330 the proceedings in other respects in the court below shall not be stayed during the pendency of such appeal unless otherwise ordered by the court below”). Accordingly, the receivership action and the receiver’s ability to carry out his duties are not stayed.

Ex. B at 3 (emphasis added). Therefore, contrary to ACL’s assertion, there is no “automatic stay” of this receivership action, and the Receiver for ACL can continue to carry out his duties during ACL’s appeal.

ACL further argues that, “besides the issue of a stay under Rule 241(a), there is also the issue of jurisdiction under Rule 205”—pursuant to which ACL contends the circuit court and the Receiver “lack jurisdiction” to continue the receivership activities during ACL’s appeal. See Pet. at 14. However, ACL’s Rule 205 “jurisdiction” argument was fully briefed in the Payne & Keller receivership action before this Court entered the September 8, 2023 order discussed above. Specifically, the appellants in Payne & Keller argued to this Court that the question of a “stay” under Rule 241(a) was beside the point, because a receivership action could not proceed in the circuit court during the appeal on jurisdictional grounds pursuant to Rule 205:

The Receiver’s motion [to clarify] frames the question as one of a stay. But this is incorrect. As a matter of hornbook South Carolina law, once an issue is before the appellate courts, the circuit court loses jurisdiction over those issues. See Rule 205, SCACR (providing that upon service of a notice of appeal, “the appellate court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over the appeal”) (emphasis added); . . . Jean H. Toal, et al., Appellate Practice in South Carolina 121 (3d ed. 2016) (explaining that “[t]he appellate court obtains exclusive jurisdiction over the appeal upon service of the notice of appeal”).

Because the very existence of the receivership is presently on appeal before this Court, there is nothing the Receiver can do at the trial level, as anything the Receiver does would, by definition, involve “matters affected by the appeal.” As such, the Receiver cannot continue to prosecute his third-party case or take other actions purportedly on Payne & Keller’s behalf while the validity of his appointment is on appeal.

Ex. E, Travelers’ Response in Opposition to the Receiver’s Motion to Clarify, Sept. 5, 2023, Appellate Case No. 2023-000727, at 4-5 (citations omitted) (emphasis added).

Travelers further argued to the Court of Appeals that Rule 62(a) and South Carolina Code § 14-3-450 were irrelevant—because Rule 205, standing alone, settled the question:

This is not at odds with Civil Rule 62(a) or South Carolina Code § 14-3-450, on which the Receiver exclusively relies. Rule 62(a), SCRCR, creates an automatic stay against executing on any judgment for a ten-day period after it has been entered, but then it exempts “injunctions, receivership, and accountings” from this automatic-stay period. That has nothing to do with whether the trial court still has jurisdiction to direct a receiver when the very existence of the receivership has been challenged on appeal and is squarely presented to this Court. See Rule 205, SCACR (vesting the appellate court with “exclusive jurisdiction” over matters on appeal) (emphasis added).

[Section 14-3-450] is similarly inapplicable. It provides: “In case of an appeal under item (4) of Section 14-3-330 the proceedings in other respects in the court below shall not be stayed during the pendency of such appeal unless otherwise ordered by the court below.” Id. (emphasis added). On its face, this statute recognizes the jurisdictional limitations placed on the trial court when a matter is on appeal, but it authorizes “the other” parts of case—that is, the unappealed parts—to proceed unless the trial court decides to stay the entirety of the proceedings.

Id. at 5 (emphasis added).

After considering these arguments—including specifically the appellant insurers’ arguments regarding Rule 205, SCACR—the Court of Appeals found that the Receiver’s position was correct and confirmed that “the receivership action and the receiver’s ability to carry out his duties are not stayed.” Ex. B, at 3 (emphasis added). Indeed, after further briefing by the appellants in the Payne & Keller receivership, the Court recently denied a motion by appellants asking it to reconsider its September 8 ruling and to “enforce Rule 205.” See Ex. C.

There is no reason for a different outcome here. First, ACL’s argument that this matter is not a “receivership action” and that Rule 62(a) thus does not apply is unavailing. This action and the Payne & Keller action are not meaningfully distinguishable. Both are appeals challenging the validity of orders appointing a receiver for the insurance assets of an asbestos defendant in the circuit court. As the appellants attempted in Payne & Keller, here ACL seeks to stay the Receiver’s ability to carry out his duties under Rule 241(a) and argues that the circuit court and the Receiver do not have “jurisdiction” under Rule 205 during the pending appeal. Faced with identical arguments, this Court confirmed in its September 8 order that Rule 62(a) and South Carolina Code § 14-3-450 were controlling. These authorities apply equally to this receivership action.

Furthermore, the Court of Appeals’ order in Payne & Keller was not premised on any unique facts or circumstances that might distinguish it from this action.¹ Here, ACL attempts to argue that a stay is warranted because, while Payne & Keller was a dissolved corporation, ACL allegedly remains a “live” foreign company that is actively challenging the appointment of a receivership. See ACL’s Pet. at 18. This is the same argument that ACL’s affiliate, Atlas, raised in its own motion to “confirm stay,” which argument this Court did not accept in entering its December 1, 2023 order denying Atlas’s petition. As with Atlas, to the extent ACL’s alleged status as a “live” company is relevant, it goes to the merits of ACL’s challenge to the circuit court’s appointment of the Receiver—and not the applicability of the Rule 62(a) and Section 14-3-340 exceptions to the general stay rule.

Indeed, if anything, ACL’s alleged status as a “live” foreign company are considerations that weigh in favor of—not against—the continuation of the receivership work during this appeal. In opposing the appointment of the Receiver, ACL repeatedly represented to the circuit court that it had no insurance that would respond to the South Carolina asbestos claims against it. However, these representations by ACL are untrue. Since his appointment, the Receiver has obtained evidence that ACL currently finances its asbestos litigation with hundreds of millions of excess liability insurance policies—directly rebutting the false statements ACL made to the circuit court below. Accordingly, South Carolina public policy regarding receiverships—as embodied in Rule 62(a) and Section 14-3-450—support rejection of ACL’s request for a stay during the pendency of its appeal, and for the continuation of the Receiver’s court-appointed duties to identify and marshal ACL’s insurance assets, notwithstanding ACL’s efforts to hide the same.²

² ACL also complains that it would not “be made whole” if the Receiver “settles cases on behalf of ACL and his appointment is later reversed.” Pet. at 19. Again, this argument does not raise any material difference between ACL and Payne & Keller, and it is misleading. The Receiver was appointed by the circuit court as a result of ACL’s defiance of the court’s orders in the underlying Tibbs lawsuit, which led to the court striking of ACL’s answer. ACL cannot be heard now to complain that it is somehow losing the opportunity to litigate and resolve cases when it has refused every prior opportunity to do so.

CONCLUSION

For the same reasons that the Court recently denied ACL-affiliate Atlas's petition for supersedeas and request to "confirm" an automatic stay—and for the additional reasons set forth herein--the Receiver respectfully requests that the Court dismiss ACL's petition.

Counsel for the Receiver

As ACL notes in its motion, the Receiver accepted service of a complaint against Atlas, an affiliate of ACL, in the Perry case, which was filed after the Receiver's appointment in Atlas. ACL fails to inform this Court, however, the Receiver immediately tendered the Perry complaint to Atlas's insurers for defense—consistent with his duties as Receiver for the insurance assets of Atlas.

ORDER

Appellant's motion to "confirm" the automatic stay or, alternatively, petition for supersedeas is denied. Appellant failed to petition the circuit court first or to satisfactorily establish that extraordinary circumstances made it impracticable to do so. See Rule 241(d)(1), SCACR ("Except where extraordinary circumstances make it impracticable, an application for an order lifting the automatic stay or for supersedeas must first be made to the lower court."). Because Appellant did not first petition the circuit court to supersede its order, the petition is denied.

ORDER

After careful consideration of Appellants' motion to "clarify and enforce Rule 205," SCACR, the motion is denied. Appellants' motion was prompted by an order issued by the circuit court on October 5, 2023, which Appellants contend the circuit court lacked jurisdiction to issue. Appellants request that this court "enforce" its exclusive jurisdiction over the matters on appeal, confirm that the circuit court acted outside its jurisdiction in issuing the October 5 order, and "enjoin[]" the circuit court from proceeding further with regard to matters affected by this appeal. The order that was properly appealed to this court is the circuit court's March 31, 2023 order denying Appellants' motion to dissolve the receivership and motion to dismiss. This court will take no action on any order which is not properly before it. See Mears v. Mears, 287 S.C. 168, 169, 337 S.E.2d 206, 207 (1985) ("Service of the notice of intent to appeal is a jurisdictional requirement . . ."). Moreover, further "motions to clarify" filed by any party may not be considered by this court. See Rule 221(c), SCACR ("The appellate court will not entertain petitions for rehearing on a motion or petition unless the action of the court on the motion or petition has the effect of dismissing or finally deciding a party's appeal.").

ORDER ON PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO APPOINT A RECEIVER

This order follows the Court's order finding Asbestos Corporation Ltd. ("ACL") in contempt of court and striking ACL's pleadings. Before the Court is Plaintiffs' Motion to Appoint a Receiver over ACL's insurance assets.

BACKGROUND

For the reasons set for below, the Court grants Plaintiffs motion to appoint a receiver over the Insurance Assets¹ of ACL and to allow the Receiver to assume control of the defense of asbestos claims made against Asbestos Corporation, Ltd in the United States. Peter Protopapas is appointed as receiver over those Insurance Assets and the Court expects anyone or any entity having information or materials which are reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence to cooperate with this Court's Receiver in locating and marshalling those assets. Further, Mr. Protopapas is tasked with tendering current and future claims from Plaintiffs suffering from asbestos disease brought against ACL to which those policies are responsive. Finally, Mr. Protopapas is tasked with the control of the defense of those claims for ACL.

PROCEEDURAL BACKGROUND

On July 19, 2023, this Court ordered ACL to fully answer discovery and to provide a corporate representative for deposition. The Court further held that failure to do so would result ACL being held in contempt. Subsequently, this Court held ACL in contempt and, as a sanction, struck the pleadings of ACL. The Court based its contempt order on ACL's flat refusal to comply with this Court's orders to produce documents, a witness or otherwise participate in discovery.

Now, having struck ACL's answer, ACL is in default.²

LAW AND ANALYSIS

A. Appointment of a Receiver is Appropriate and Warranted

The South Carolina receivership statute provides in relevant part that a receiver may be appointed in cases in accordance with "existing practice." S.C. Code Ann. 15-65-10(5).³

² The process of actually entering default judgment is merely a ministerial process. In the absence of an answer, default is nothing more than that ministerial act. Stark Truss Co., Inc. v. Superior Const. Corp. 360 S.C. 503 (Ct. App. 2004)

Historically, receivers are appointed by courts sitting in equity in order to ensure a fair result. First Carolinas Joint Stock Land Bank of Columbia v. Knotts, 191 S.C. 384 (1939). Indeed, “[t]he right to have a receiver appointed is an ancient one” Pelzer v. Hughes, 27 S.C. 408 (1887) But where, as here, ACL’s answer has been struck, and thus only a ministerial action being left for ACL to be in judgment, a receiver to take possession of and, to the extent necessary, litigate ACL’s insurance assets as well as to assume control of the defense of asbestos claims made against ACL in the United States is exactly the type of historical circumstances, the Court’s of this state have found appropriate. Specifically, where, as here, a debtor, solvent or otherwise, is trying to defeat his creditors by an act or course of conduct which indicates moral fraud-a conscious intent to defeat, delay or hinder creditors in the collection of debts-then a court will grant any relief within its jurisdiction appropriate and effective to protect creditors against the fraud without requiring the creditor to run the risk of losing his debt from the delay of obtaining judgment and return of nulla bona on the execution.

Virginia Carolina Chemical v. Hunter, 84 S.C. 214 (1909).

Here it is exactly the moral fraud of ACL’s personal jurisdiction claims, exposed by decades of opinions dismissing those very assertions and ACL’s continued refusal to participate in this that warrants the appointment of a receiver. Thus, where there is active wrongdoing and illegal refusal to comply with this Court’s orders, the appointment of a receiver is appropriate.

As Plaintiffs have requested, a receiver appointed here would have the authority to administer “any insurance assets” including “any claims related to the actions or failure to act of ACL’s insurance carriers.” The Receiver would assume control of the defense of asbestos claims made against ACL in the United States. This Court’s view of the scope of a receiver’s authority is not unique. The United States Supreme Court recognized in Porter v. Sabin, 149 U.S. 473 (1893) that “[t]he whole property of the corporation [is] within the jurisdiction of the court which appointed the receiver, including all its rights of action, except so far as already lawfully disposed of under orders of that court, [and] remains in its custody, to be administered and distributed by it.” Id. at 480 (emphasis added).

That the South Carolina receivership references “property within this state” is not a limitation on the Receiver’s authority in this case. Instead, the statutory reference is consistent with principles of comity, which deter a state court from reaching beyond a state’s borders and asserting jurisdiction over such property located in another jurisdiction. These same principles of comity support a state court’s authority to vest a statutory receiver to assert an insolvent corporation’s rights of action. See e.g. Hirson v. United Stores Corp. 263 A.D. 646, 34 N.Y.S.2d 122 (App. Div. 1st Dep. 1942), aff’d 43 N.E.2d 712 (N.Y. App. Ct. 1942) (holding that title to choses in action held by a receiver appointed pursuant to Delaware law would be afforded “full faith and credit”). That is the authority given to be given the receiver here.

That authority includes the insurance assets of ACL, including the right to assume control of the defense of asbestos claims made against ACL in the United States and tender claims to applicable insurance policies. Even assuming ACL’s interpretation of §15-65-10 is correct, to the extent they exist, ACL’s Insurance Assets ² would be intended to protect the lives, interests and property within South Carolina. The result is that the insuring assets are subject to the laws of South Carolina, including the duly appointed Receiver.

² For purpose of clarity, this Court defines “Insurance Assets” as any insurance policy, proceeds of insurance policies, claims relating to such insurance policies, including but not limited to, claims relating to any breaches of duty relating to those policies, information relating to those insurance policies including, but not limited to mail, files of counsel, or other information which is reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence about those insurance policies or any other assets which are related to, touch or are otherwise relevant to such insurance.

S.C. Code Ann §38-61-10 states that

[a]ll contracts of insurance on property, lives, or interests in this state are considered to be made in the State and all contracts of insurance the applications for which are taken within this State are considered to have been made within this State and are subject to the laws of this State.

In interpreting §38-61-10, the South Carolina Supreme Court held that “[i]t is immaterial where the contract was entered into. Further there is no requirement that the policyholders or insurers be citizens of South Carolina. What is solely relevant is where the property, lives, or interests insured are located.” Sangamo Weston v. Nat’l Sur. Corp., 307 S.C. 143, 149, 414 S.E.2d 127, 130 (1992) (Toal, C.J). The result is that “South Carolina substantive law governs [the insuring assets of ACL]” Id. Thus, the appointment of a receiver over those assets is appropriate.

B. Due Process has not and will not be violated

ACL continues to ignore the jurisprudence of this state which directly addresses its due process argument. Just as here, Sangamo argued that §38-61-10 was “unconstitutional.” Id. at 131. The South Carolina Supreme Court there opined that insuring property, lives and interests in South Carolina constitutes a significant contact with this state. South Carolina has a substantial interest in who bears the liability for operations conducted in this state which result in injury to South Carolina property and citizens. Although the parties are not residents of this state, both parties availed themselves of the law of South Carolina when they respectively provided or received insurance on interests located in this state.

Id. ACL sold its products throughout the United States well knowing that it would end up in the workplaces of working men and women throughout the nation, including sales, specifically to South Carolina. Therefore, under the statutory scheme of this state and its interpreting precedent, whatever insuring assets of ACL exist and related claims are subject to the substantive law of South Carolina and nothing about that result is violative of due process.

POWERS OF THE RECEIVER

As set forth above, the powers afforded to the receiver here are all related to the insurance assets of ACL. Therefore, this Court hereby orders that Peter Protopapas be and hereby is appointed Receiver in this case with the power and authority fully administer all insurance assets of Asbestos Corporation, Ltd. and any subsidiaries, accept service on behalf of ACL, engage counsel on behalf of ACL, to assume control of the defense of asbestos claims made against ACL in the United States, and take any and all steps necessary to protect the interests of ACL whatever they may be. This order includes the right and obligation to administer any insurance or indemnification assets of ACL as well as any claims related to the actions or failure to act of ACL insurance carriers or other entities, including, but not limited to the officers, directors and/or shareholders of ACL against which the ACL may have claims.

In addition to the powers of the Receiver set forth herein, the Receiver shall have the following rights, powers and authority, insofar as they are related to the discovery of and recovery of insurance assets, to: 1) open any mail which is reasonably believed to contain information relating to insurance assets addressed to the defendant and addressed to any business owned by the ACL; redirect the delivery of any such mail addressed to the ACL or any business of the ACL, so that such mail may come directly to the receiver; 2) endorse and cash all checks and negotiable instruments payable to ACL relating to insurance assets; 3) obtain from any financial institution, bank, credit union, savings and loan or title, credit bureau or any other third party, any financial records belonging to or pertaining to the insurance assets of ACL; 4) hire any person necessary to accomplish any right or power under this Order; 5) to assume control of the defense of asbestos claims made against ACL in the United States; and 6) take all action necessary to gain access to all storage facilities, safety-deposit boxes, real property, and leased premises wherein any property of ACL may be situated, and to review and obtain copies of all documents related to insurance assets of ACL.

The Court expects the Receiver to investigate the existence of all insurance or indemnifications coverages or claims relating thereto which are potentially available to ACL. The Receiver will provide potential insurers or indemnifiers with lists of work sites, contractors, and insurance brokers and agents to facilitate the insurers' searches for coverage (specifically including coverage provided to any related or subsidiary companies of ACL or any entity for whom ACL did work or supplied materials or licensed products or the use thereof as an "additional insured" under coverage written to another entity). The Court expects all insurers or indemnifiers to comply with subpoenas issued by this Court and its Receiver in effectuating these thorough searches.

This Court notes that under the Barton doctrine, suit against the Receiver outside of this Court is expressly prohibited.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the appointment of a receiver for ACL to marshal all of the available insurance assets, including claims related thereto and any other property subject to this receivership of ACL and its subsidiaries, successors, and assigns, is appropriate. Moreover, the Court authorizes Mr. Protopapas to assume the control of the defense of all litigation matters pending in the United States against ACL. Peter Protopapas is hereby appointed the receiver over ACL consistent with this order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

TRAVELERS'S RESPONSE IN OPPOSITION TO THE RECEIVER'S "MOTION TO CLARIFY"

Through this appeal, Travelers has asked this Court to review the propriety of an unlawful receivership appointment by a South Carolina state court over a Texas company that was dissolved in 1986 and has no operations, property, or any connection at all to South Carolina. The trial court's refusal to terminate this unlawful receivership and allow it to continue is immediately appealable under South Carolina Code § 14-3-330(4), and the Court has rightly allowed the appeal to proceed. (Order in Appellate Case No. 2023-000727 (Aug. 9, 2023).)

In the face of this Court’s instructions, the Receiver has filed a motion that he captions “motion to clarify.” Through his motion, the Receiver asks the Court to “clarify that the pendency of this appeal does not stay the underlying Receivership action and the Receiver may continue carrying out his court-appointed duties while this appeal is pending.” (Mot. to Clarify at unnumbered final page.) The Court should deny this motion.

Summary of Issues on Appeal. The Receiver’s motion is noticeably silent as to why he even wants the Court to issue such a ruling in the first place. After all, Payne & Keller filed its corporate termination papers during the Reagan Administration, so there isn’t any risk of the company squandering or redirecting assets. And because a South Carolina receiver’s only job is to protect corporate assets in South Carolina (of which there are none)¹ for the benefit of South Carolina business or tort judgment creditors (of which there are none), the Receiver should be agnostic about “continuing” the receivership, as he puts it in his motion, while this appeal is pending. See S.C. Code Ann. § 15-65-10(4) (allowing a court to appoint a receiver for “the property within this State of foreign corporations” that have dissolved); Penn. Mut. Life Ins. Co. v. Cudd, 172 S.C. 88, 92, 172 S.E. 787, 788–89 (1934) (explaining that “the receiver appointed should be untrammelled in his relations, entirely indifferent between the parties, and absolutely fair and impartial,” since the receiver is supposed to be “an officer of the Court”).

Without any risk of assets being wasted, and without Payne & Keller having a single known business or tort judgment creditor (since it hasn’t operated in 37 years), there is literally nothing for the Receiver to do, even assuming arguendo his appointment was lawful in the first place (it was not, as will be explained in great detail in Travelers’s appellate briefing to this Court).

Accordingly, there is no need for this Court to give the “clarification” the Receiver seeks through is motion. Moreover, the Receiver is wrong on the law, and his motion should be denied if the Court believes it needs to reach the merits of the motion.

The Law Bars the Receiver’s Requested Relief. The Receiver’s motion frames the question as one of a stay. But this is incorrect. As a matter of hornbook South Carolina law, once an issue is before the appellate courts, the circuit court loses jurisdiction over those issues. See Rule 205, SCACR (providing that upon service of a notice of appeal, “the appellate court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over the appeal”) (emphasis added); Stokes-Craven Holding Corp. v. McKenzie, 416 S.C. 517, 534, 787 S.E.2d 485, 494 (2016) (explaining that “Rule 205 divests the lower court or administrative tribunal of jurisdiction over ‘matters affected by the appeal’” (quoting Tillman v. Oakes, 398 S.C. 245, 255, 728 S.E.2d 45, 51 (Ct. App. 2012))) (emphasis supplied by the Supreme Court); Morris v. Morris, 295 S.C. 37, 40, 367 S.E.2d 24, 26 (1988) (“This Court has exclusive jurisdiction over an appeal upon the service of a Notice of Intent to Appeal.”); Tillman, 398 S.C. at 255 & n.3, 728 S.E.2d at 51 & n.3 (reiterating that “[u]nder Rule 205, the lower court is deprived of the power to proceed with matters that are affected by the appeal,” and explaining that this rule “deprives the lower court of the power to address a particular issue, or ‘matter,’ during the pendency of the appeal”); Jean H. Toal, et al., Appellate Practice in South Carolina 121 (3d ed. 2016) (explaining that “[t]he appellate court obtains exclusive jurisdiction over the appeal upon service of the notice of appeal”).

Because the very existence of the receivership is presently on appeal before this Court, there is nothing the Receiver can do at the trial level, as anything the Receiver does would, by definition, involve “matters affected by the appeal.” As such, the Receiver cannot continue to prosecute his third-party case or take other actions purportedly on Payne & Keller’s behalf while the validity of his appointment is on appeal.

This is not at odds with Civil Rule 62(a) or South Carolina Code § 14-3-450, on which the Receiver exclusively relies. Rule 62(a), SCRCR, creates an automatic stay against executing on any judgment for a ten-day period after it has been entered, but then it exempts “injunctions, receivership, and accountings” from this automatic-stay period. That has nothing to do with whether the trial court still has jurisdiction to direct a receiver when the very existence of the receivership has been challenged on appeal and is squarely presented to this Court. See Rule 205, SCACR (vesting the appellate court with “exclusive jurisdiction” over matters on appeal) (emphasis added).

The statute is similarly inapplicable. It provides: “In case of an appeal under item (4) of Section 14-3-330 the proceedings in other respects in the court below shall not be stayed during the pendency of such appeal unless otherwise ordered by the court below.” Id. (emphasis added). On its face, this statute recognizes the jurisdictional limitations placed on the trial court when a matter is on appeal, but it authorizes “the other” parts of case—that is, the unappealed parts—to proceed unless the trial court decides to stay the entirety of the proceedings.

Here, the receivership order arises in the context of an asbestos case. Ms. Childers—the tort plaintiff who, curiously, appears to have filed this suit against only dissolved companies and then used her case to create scores of receiverships (see Ex. A, Public Index for this matter (entries creating “receiverships” on August 27, 2021 (four receiverships created that day); September 24, 2021; and December 7, 2021 (four receiverships created that day))—is free to proceed with the parts of her lawsuit that do not implicate the Payne & Keller receivership. That is precisely what Section 14-3-450 permits, but no further, because allowing the Receiver to continue operating in the face of an appellate challenge to the legitimacy of the receiver’s appointment would encroach matters that are within this Court’s “exclusive jurisdiction.” Rule 205, SCACR; see Tillman, 398 S.C. at 255 & n.3, 728 S.E.2d at 51 & n.3 (reiterating that “[u]nder Rule 205, the lower court is deprived of the power to proceed with matters that are affected by the appeal,” and explaining that this rule “deprives the lower court of the power to address a particular issue, or ‘matter,’ during the pendency of the appeal”).

Finally, the Court should not have any practical concerns about preventing the Receiver from “continuing” during the pendency of this appeal. In South Carolina, “[t]he appointment of a receiver is a drastic remedy, and should be granted only with reluctance and caution.” Midlands Util., Inc. v. S.C. DHEC, 301 S.C. 224, 228, 391 S.E.2d 535, 538 (1989) (citation omitted). There was no evidentiary basis whatsoever for the trial court to use this “drastic remedy” in the first place; Payne & Keller has not operated for several decades, and there is no factual basis anywhere in the record to suggest that its assets—none of which are in South Carolina—will somehow be wasted during this appeal. If anything, those assets can be protected by a Texas receiver’s assertion of Payne & Keller’s termination in a Texas state court. That should give the Court full confidence that there is no practical reason to allow the Receiver to “continue” operating while the Court considers the lawfulness of the rulings that created the South Carolina receivership in the first place.

CONCLUSION

The Court should deny the Receiver's "motion to clarify." It is wrong on the law, and the Court should be skeptical of unleashing an improperly-appointed receiver while an appeal involving the appointment itself is pending.
