Motion to Extend Deadline To Deliver Transcript

COMES NOW Appellant, Dorothy Pierce, proceeding Pro se pursuant to Rule 207 and respectfully files this motion to extend deadline to deliver transcript.

In support of this motion, Appellant shows unto the Court:

1. Appellant timely filed her Notice of Appeal on September 25, 2023.
2. The appellant timely sent a request for transcript to the court reporter.
3. Appellant has not yet received the transcript from the court reporter and its not the court reporter's fault.
4. Appellant delayed mailing a check to the court reporter. The delay was not intentional. The court reporter is in receipt of the $510.00 check and will update Appellant when the transcript is ready after which Appellant will notify the court and the parties accordingly.
5. However, to remedy the delay, the appellant has already filed her Initial Appeal Brief with the clerk of court of appeals.
6. Appellant has sent an email to the South Carolina Office of Administration seeking guidance if this request is still warranted but is yet to receive feedback.

THEREFORE, Appellant respectfully requests the Court to grant her Motion to extend deadline for delivering transcript in this case.
