Opinion No. 5101 (S.C. Ct. App. Filed March 20, 2013)

403 S.C. 203, 742 S.E.2d 672

Case No: 2013-001341

James T. Judy, Bobby R. Judy Respondents,
And Kevin Judy,

Vs.

Ronnie F. Judy, J. Todd Judy,
Ryan C. Judy and Wanda B. Judy, Defendants,

Of whom Ronnie F. Judy is, Petitioner.

REPLY TO MOTION OF RESPONDENTS TO DISMISS PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI

Petitioner, Ronnie F. Judy moves for a Motion of reconsideration filed on June 21, 2013, on the Court's dismissal of the Petition for Writ of Certiorari filed by Ronnie F. Judy, pro se, on the following grounds:

1. The Petition was filed in a timely fashion, in person, with the Supreme Courts' Clerk of Court Office on June 21, 2013 and mailed to opposing counsel on June 21, 2013, according to S.C. Rule 242 (Certiorari . To The Court of Appeals) (c) within 30 days. This was verified by a phone call to the Clerk in the office of the Supreme Court on July 23, 2013.

A copy of the Order for rehearing was filed on May 21, 2013 and mailed to opposing counsels, Attorney Barr and Eric Hale, on the same date. Attorney Barr forwarded me a copy of said order to me which I received on/about June 20, 2013. He was informed in a timely manner.

- a. Per family tradition (Grandfather and father) all real estate property was transferred to their children. This was personally done on November 18, 1998. At that time Respondents were unforeseen future creditors. Code 27-23-10.

Did Petitioner have knowledge of litigation before November 18, 1998? The answer is NO.

- b. The Respondents are trying every conceivable way to gain my property for alleged debt and for the procurement of property that is located in the middle of their 'hunting club'.
- c. My Constitutional Right conveys to me a fair and impartial trial. Please take notice that in the Court of Common Pleas FOR THE FIRST JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, Civil Action No.01-CP-18-122 in the NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION TO DISMISS AS TO RONNIE F. JUDY AS A PARTY DEFENDANT in the State Of South Carolina –v- J. Todd Judy and Ronnie F. Judy, Ronnie F. Judy was dismissed as a party Defendant on the grounds that Defendant does not claim an ownership interest in the property described in the Summons and Complaint filed with the Court as written by William E. McIntosh, III, Attorney for Plaintiff and the Judgment on Trial or Order by the Court filed August 7, 2001 granted Motion to Dismiss Ronnie Judy and signed by Circuit Court Judge, Rodney A. Peeples on August 6th, 2001. This information was intentionally left out of the transcript of the Record of Appeal dated July 18, 2011. The transcript is not verbatim. When a request for a copy of the Court Tape of said Hearing, an employee of the A. William Roberts, Jr. and Associates Court Reporting stated the law only requires a tape to be saved for six (6) months and then they were destroyed. Under Rule 607 of The South Carolina Court of Administration, it states recordings are to be kept five (5) years before destroying.

Point in reference: Judge Martin R. Banks called Ronnie Judy down in Court for cursing in his Court Room. Judy replied he had not cursed. The Judge then asked the opposing Attorney, Caper Barrs for clarity. Barrs stated Judy was referring to the pond dam in question at the time. In the transcript cursing was changed to "swearing" (page 88 of the transcript, line 18). The Judge did not offer an apology to Judy. (page 88, line 21)

Please take notice the February 2013 Roster for the South Carolina Court of Appeals, stated the Judges scheduled to hear Judy's Appellate Case No. 2012-209028 were Few, Geathers and Lockemy. However, Huff, Williams, and Kondurons, acquaintances of the opposing Attorney Caper Barrs, were there to rule.

For the reasons argued, the Petition for Writ of Certiorari should not be dismissed.

Respectfully Submitted

Ronnie F. Judy, Pro se
