Dear Ms. Harrison:

I am writing to respond to your request for scheduling conflicts contained in your letter dated December 5, 2023, in the above-referenced matters. I am the attorney who is handling these appeals and I am unavailable on April 1, 2, 3 and 4 as I will be traveling out of state with my high school senior during her spring break to visit potential colleges. I am, however, available the following week on April 9, 10 and 11. I appreciate you taking into consideration my conflict.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you need any additional information. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Cordially,
