Thank you Kevin.

You are correct in stating that everyone who receives a transcript or a copy of a transcript is expected to pay for their transcript. Attorneys should not be sharing transcripts with other parties to an action, they need to order their own copy of a transcript.

Thank you.

Drew,

Each party who requested the transcript is charged per South Carolina Judicial Branch policies. Mr. Foster was invoiced the standard rate of $4.25 per page, and you were invoiced the copy rate of $1.00 per page. Ms. Holmes:

I am not trying to be rude when I say this: please read the attached transcript (it is very short) and you tell me whether it is actually a transcript of a hearing or just a transcript of some discussion that happened before a hearing took place. All someone needed to do was go to the part of that recording when the hearing was actually held and transcribe that as well.

This is really Mr. Foster's job to try to get this transcript.

Thank you.
