SC Court of Appeals

To whom this may concern,

I am Dea'Shawn Harrison and I am writing this letter in Propria Persona. Let the record show that I, Party Creditor reserve ~~all my rights per the United States Constitution, Bill of Rights, and Common Laws U.C.C. 1-308 without prejudice.~~ I am writing this letter in concerns of an appeal in which I filed on September 12, 2023 in the South Carolina Court of Appeals in which I was told by the clerk of court (Patricia A. Howard) to file with the circuit in which I did. The circuit court (the 1st judicial circuit of South Carolina / Dorchester County) then wrote in response to my letter stating that it would be filed (in which it was). I then received an Appellate Case No. (2023-001434). Upon further filing, I was told per the clerk of court that due to deficiencies of my filings and the fact that I had representation/counsel that I could not have hybrid filings with me filing as pro-se and having counsel. My appellate case has been dismissed due to insufficient counsel in which I have grieved thru the courts and have actually had a hearing the day of my probation violation hearing in General Sessions of Dorchester County to determine my mental competence to represent myself in which my probation had been terminated. I was not able to address the fact (orally) to the courts (on record) that I did not wish to have representation. So since I was never able to get my forced-appointed counsel off my case, the as of now remains my counsel. I have received letters from the first judicial circuit public defenders office in regards of the letters I was filing, but nothing in regards as to how they going to act upon it. I seek redress and wish to appeal the dismission made to have my appellate case no: 2023-001464 within the state of South Carolina / STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA. If there is anyway the courts (Superior) can help me you may reach me at the following address; Dea' Shawn Harrison #5725, HFDC Room B-26, 300 CALIFORNIA AVENUE, MONROE'S CORNER, SC 29461. I humbly thank you for your time with the kindest of regards. I have written this letter to the best of my ability with a sound - mind. I also swear, depose, and affirm the above claims to be truth, fact, and not misreading.

Sincerely ;

"Without Prejudice"
