Matthew Klein
Redrock Capital
VIA EMAIL: mcklein@clemson.edu

Dear Mr. Klein:

I was retained by Mrs. Shawn Gordon to assist her with an immediate property issue that involves your company, Redrock Capital, LLC. She purchased her home at 569 Butler Dr., Livingston SC from Mr. David Cody New in 2013. Unfortunately, Mrs. Gordon discovered that Mr. New never properly recorded the title to the home in her name. She is disabled, with three children she homeschools. Though Mrs. Gordon paid taxes on the home, it was put up for tax auction in 2018, when I understand your company purchased the property. Because Mrs. Gordon was not the owner of Title, she did not receive the notices about the tax sale until it was too late. She has now discovered your company putting the home up for auction, and that is why she hired me.

I have explained the difficult legal position Mr. New has caused Mrs. Gordon in not properly recording the Deed of the real estate she purchased. Mrs. Gordon just contacted us about helping, so I am researching case law about her situation and options to keep her home. I wanted to reach out to you in hopes of a potential resolution of this matter in which Mrs. Gordon and her children can remain in the home. On her behalf, I ask that you consider taking the home off auction, and for us to attempt to discover a way for Mrs. Gordon to purchase the home. She can pursue her legal options against Mr. New separately. Again, she is severely disabled and is not in a realistic position to move with her children right now. Please contact me to see if we can come to a resolution of this matter. Thank you.

Sincerely,

William M. Connor, V

Mr. Klein,

My clients, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon, who purchased the property at 569 Butler Dr., Livingston SC in 2013 (the prior owner failed to register the Deed), came by my office today. They are providing the contract of sale of the home from 2013. I understand the auction of that property for Redrock Capital finishes tomorrow, and am attempting to communicate before having to submit a court filing for the Gordons' interest in the property. They are willing to resolve this matter, and request you please reach out today. My number is below. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Bill

This matter came before this Court on February 16, 2022. The Respondent (herein after referred to as Hussein) filed a Notice to Quit against the Appellant (hereinafter referred to as Gordon). Mr. Hussein was represented by Michael Tanner and Mr. Gordon was Pro Se. Mr. Hussein entered into evidence a copy of a properly recorded property deed showing that Mr. Hussein is the owner of said property. Secondly, Mr. Hussein entered into evidence a 2021 tax notice showing Mr. Hussein as owner of said property. Mr. Gordon filed paperwork with the Court on the day of the trial, but failed to enter any of the evidence as part of his defense. Mr. Gordon referenced a "deed" which attorney Tanner objected to. The supposed "deed" was hand written, illegible and not recorded. Also, there were two handwritten receipts which could have been drawn by anyone. Mr. Gordon admitted on the record that he knew the property wasn't in his name and that they had been looking for David New since 2013. David New is the guy they claim they bought the property from. After considering all the above, I ruled in favor of the Plaintiff based on the fact that the said property was in the name of the Plaintiff and it was properly recorded in the Orangeburg County Register of Deeds.
