vs.

State of South Carolina,

Respondent.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

Case # 2020-CP-07-798

792

ORDER

2023 DEC -4 04 12:19
JERRI ANN ROSEBEAU
CLERK OF COURT
BEAUFORT COUNTY, S.C.

This post-conviction relief case came before the court for a hearing. Having now heard this matter, the court orders as indicated herein.

1. The application for post-conviction relief is hereby:        denied        granted        under advisement; a formal order will be filed (see below - No.6)

  X   2. Motion(s) was/were heard in this case and the court orders:
       The motion to dismiss and/or for summary judgment is hereby        granted        denied        under advisement based upon the        statute of limitations and/or        the successive nature of the application or   X   other reason as follows:
   The Motion to Reconsider is Denied.

3. A conditional order of dismissal was previously filed in this case. Upon review of the matter, the court finds:
       Good cause as to why the case should not be dismissed has been shown in response to the order of dismissal; therefore, a hearing on the merits of the application shall be scheduled.
       The court has considered the response to the conditional order of dismissal and finds that good cause has not been shown or        no response has been filed to the conditional order of dismissal; therefore, the application is hereby dismissed.

4. The application was freely, voluntarily, and intelligently withdrawn as indicated on the record; therefore, this case is dismissed        with prejudice        without prejudice.

5. Other: _____

6. The court further orders:
       The    Attorney General        Applicant's counsel is directed to submit to the court a proposed order and to serve the order on opposing counsel within 30 days.
       Both sides are directed to submit proposed orders to the court and to serve the orders on each other within        days.
       The court does not request proposed orders.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
