Clerk, South Carolina Court of Appeals

Re: Oshaun J. Robinson v. State of South Carolina
Appellate Case No: 2020-001361

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

The referenced matter is a State's appeal from a grant of post-conviction relief. This Court granted the State's petition on October 19, 2023. However, the appeal was placed in abeyance pending the resolution of issues concerning Mr. Robinson's representation. The matter of counsel has been resolved. Ms. Tricia A. Blanchette is counsel of record. (See Order entered December 7, 2023). The Court's records presently reflect that the matter remains in abeyance.

Therefore, the State respectfully requests an Order removing the matter from abeyance and setting a briefing schedule. The State has conferred with opposing counsel, and she has advised the undersigned that she has no objection to the request.

Thank you for your consideration of this request. If anything more formal is required, please advise and I will be happy to comply.

Sincerely,

s/ Melody J. Brown
