Re: Donegal Insurance v. Charles H. Wade
Appellate Case No.: 2023-000549

Dear Madam Clerk:

I received correspondence from you today, January 11, 2024, to inform me that the date for serving and filing the Appellant's final reply brief has expired, which I have attached for your reference. On December 12, 2023, I received an email from the Court with filed and stamped copies of the Appellant's Final Brief and Proof of Service after each respective filing was submitted via email on December 11, 2023. Under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, I realize that a Reply Brief is discussed in Rule 208 under Initial Briefs; however, there was no mention of a Reply Brief in Rule 211 under Final Briefs. As such, I was under the impression that our Reply Brief, which was filed on October 26, 2023, was the only such filing allowed for Reply Briefs. If my understanding is incorrect, please inform me as soon as possible, as we have been attentive and compliant with deadlines for filing our Initial Brief, Record on Appeal, and Final Brief and do not want to further inconvenience the Court more than what may already exist.

With warmest personal regards, I am

Yours very truly,

Andrew C. Brehmer

Re: Donegal Insurance v. Charles H. Wade
Appellate Case No. 2023-000549

Dear Counsel:

Our records reflect that the time for serving and filing the appellant's final reply brief has expired. Within ten days of the date of this letter, you must serve and file the appellant's final reply brief, along with a motion requesting permission to serve and file the appellant's final reply brief outside of the filing deadlines set by Rule 211 of the SCACR or the Court will not consider your reply brief.

Very truly yours,

CLERK
