REFERENCE: HOMICIDE

LOCATION: 1483 CHERRY HILL ROAD, MONCK'S CORNER, S.C.

DATE: MARCH 05, 1996

This was photographed by Det. Kokinda and collected as evidence. Further the vehicle belonging to the victim was measured and documented. This concluded and reflected the information and other evidence located at the victim's residence on this day March 6, 1996.

Between March 6, 1996 and April 15, 1996, approximately 65 possible suspects were interviewed by this agency and major case prints were obtained by consent and some were obtained by arrest of these persons on unrelated charges. A list is provided of all the persons that this agency interviewed regarding this Homicide of Clarence Cooper. Investigation continues.

Information was provided to this agency from the State Law Enforcement Division that they had obtained a print believed to be of the palm of a crumbled up check belonging to the victim's wife Pearlina Cooper. This check was taken as evidence the night of the Homicide.

On April 15, 1996, this officer Det. Lewis and Captain Henerey responded to 254 Myers Mayo Road, Ridgeville in Dorchester County. We responded as a result of an incident being investigated by Dorchester County officials regarding a Burglary and death of one of the suspects at this location. Because Dorchester County officials were aware of our on-going investigation of the Homicide of Clarence Cooper of 1483 Cherry Hill Road, Moncks Corner, they notified this agency because of similarities in the
