#Dear Clerk of Court,

I am writing to inform you that on January 19, 2023, I did not file a motion regarding Rule 55 default judgments. My name is Jamie Goss, and I am still awaiting a case number for the matter at hand. However, I have the South Carolina Supreme Court case number, which is 2023-001271, and the Court of Appeal case number, which is 2021-001271. I kindly request the court's investigation into this issue for resolution. Please note that I have been using the email address Heavenlybitesllc@gmail.com to file all my motions. I fervently pray in the name of Jesus that the court will address and take care of this matter promptly. With heartfelt gratitude,

Jamie Goss

##Investigating a Matter of Urgency

As I communicate with the esteemed Clerk of Court, I would like to bring an important matter to their attention. It is imperative that the court investigate Rule 55 default judgments and their implications promptly. This case holds utmost significance for me, and I sincerely believe that justice will be served through a thorough examination of the facts at hand. The following information will assist the court in comprehending the gravity of the situation.

###Providing Case Numbers

To ensure efficient communication and avoid any confusion, allow me to provide the relevant case numbers. The South Carolina Supreme Court case number associated with this matter is 2023-001271. Equally significant is the Court of Appeal case number, which is 2021-001271. Considering these particulars, I express my hope that the court will give due consideration to investigating this case diligently.

###Urgent Request for Investigation

Given the circumstances, I earnestly request the court's attention to investigate this matter with utmost urgency. As a responsible party involved in this case, I diligently filed all my motions using the email address Heavenlybitesllc@gmail.com. This email has been my sole means of official correspondence with the court. It is imperative that the court acknowledges this fact and takes appropriate measures to address the pending motions promptly.

###A Prayer for Resolution

In times of uncertainty, faith can provide solace. Thus, I humbly pray to the court, in the name of Jesus, to handle this matter with the utmost care and attention it deserves. My earnest desire is for the court to recognize the urgency and unique circumstances of this case, providing swift and just resolution. With unwavering hope and deep respect, I implore the court to take immediate action, ensuring that justice is served. As an involved party, I trust in the court's ability to rectify this situation and bring about a fair conclusion.
