Ms. Ritchie,

The last correspondence I received from the Court was on 12/11/23 regarding Appellant's deficiency for failing to provide proof of service for his initial brief. I never received any documentation from the Court that Appellant provided a proof of service. Did the Appellant provide proof of service?

Also, Appellant's Brief is handwritten and not legible. His brief fails to comply with Rule 267(c). Pursuant to Rule 267(g) the clerk is to ensure compliance with Rule 267 before accepting the filing. Do I need to file a Motion for Non-Compliance?

Thank you,

Chris Lanning
