RE: The State v. Antonio D. Brayboy
Appellate Case No. 2023-001182

Dear Madame Clerk:

Appellant respectfully requests an extension of time until February 29, 2024 to file and serve Appellant's Initial Brief and Designation of Matters. This request is made in light of counsel having a trial in general sessions court for criminal sexual conduct with a minor first degree which counsel must prepare for. Counsel must prepare for this trial but must also ensure all portions of Appellant's brief are properly prepared. For good cause shown, Appellant respectfully requests and extension of time to file Appellant's Initial Brief and Designation of Matters until February 29, 2024.

This request for an extension is not intended for the purpose of delay but is necessitated by trial preparations, our heavy workload as well as the length of the transcript.

With kind regards, I am

Truly Yours,

Lauren K. Anderson
