

RECEIVED

Jan 30 2024

From: Jamie Goss
To: Supreme Court Filings; agsecurities@scag.gov; Court Of Appeals Filings
Subject: RULE 65 INJUNCTIONS; MANDAMUS, HABEAS CORPUS, AND OTHER REMEDIAL WRITS Rule 62 STAY OF PROCEEDINGS TO ENFORCE A JUDGMENT. Rule 64 REMEDIES FOR SEIZURE, REMEDIES NOT PROVIDED. Rule 22 INTERPLEADER
Date: Tuesday, January 30, 2024 8:28:05 AM

S.C. SUPREME COURT

 EXTERNAL EMAIL: This email originated from outside the organization. Please exercise caution before clicking any links or opening attachments. ***

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF SOUTH CAROLINA

APPEAL FROM HORRY COUNTY
COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

HONORABLE Ferrell Cothran Circuit Judge
HONORABLE William Seals Circuit Judge
HONORABLE Bruce William Appeal Judge
HONORABLE John Geather Appeal Judge
HONORABLE Jenny A. Kitching Appeal Clerk
HONORABLE Stephanie P. McDonald Appeals
HONORABLE Lockemy James Appeal Court
HONORABLE Brenda F. Shealy Appeal Clerk

SUPREME COURT CASE #2023-001660
COURT OF APPEAL CASE #2021-001271

Motion to Construed the Recod in
Supreme Court and All records concern these extraordinary circumstances in SCDC

Jamie Goss. Petition
V
Mark Farthing. Respond

Attorney General Mark Farthing 1000 Assembly St, Columbia, SC 29201

Jamie Goss
PO Box 2039
Ridgeland SC 29926

Dear Supreme Court to all HONORABLE Judges: Understanding the Extraordinary Circumstances of my Case

I respectfully request that this esteemed Court takes into consideration the extraordinary circumstances surrounding my case. These circumstances include a breach of contract due to staff shortages in various departments, prison overcrowding, and a lack of professional experience among law clerks in the South Carolina Department of Corrections (SCDC) as a whole. Such violations of Article 12, Section 2 and Title 24 demand your attention. Moreover, I implore the mercy and assistance of the court in the name of justice and fairness.

The Importance of Pulling All Relevant Records

To fully grasp the complexities of my situation, it is essential that the Court thoroughly examines all pertinent records related to my case. I humbly request that the Court retrieve and review records from the circuit court in Horry County, the court of appeals, as well as my kiosk messages from SCDC. Only by considering all available information can a just and informed judgement be reached.

Praying for Relief under Extraordinary Circumstances

In light of the extraordinary circumstances surrounding my case, I beseech the Court to pray alongside me for divine intervention. Let us petition the court in the name of Jesus, seeking guidance and divine wisdom to navigate this complex legal situation. The application of the extraordinary circumstances rule to my last five motions, including summonses, complaints, and an emergency bond, is crucial. I believe, given the risks to my well-being and life, that my case deserves urgent attention and relief.

Void in Legislation: The Impact of COVID-19

The absence of legislation addressing COVID-19 and its particular impact on prisoners is a glaring gap in the law. The lawmakers, SCDC, and Parole Board have failed to enact appropriate measures to address the challenges posed by this global pandemic. I urge the Court to consider the extraordinary circumstances in my case, which include respiratory problems, irregular heartbeats, skin infections, and significant dental issues. These ailments have caused immense harm and financial strain on my family. It is evident that statutory damage control is sorely lacking in this regard. Now I'm dealing with the after effect of Covid-19 over weight 100 pounds no alternative medicine for my health concerning my way of life in the word of God. Cause of action the law in place and no police in place.

The Need for an Expert Witness

In order to attain justice, I implore the Court to assign an expert witness to inspect the circumstances surrounding my case. This expert witness will shed light on the violations and breaches that have occurred, further validating the need for urgent and fair resolution. The importance of an unbiased expert witness can never be overstated in situations as complex and emotionally charged as my own.

Requesting a Jury Trial and State Consideration

Unless the state is willing to negotiate a favorable resolution, I firmly believe that my case warrants a jury trial. By allowing my peers to weigh the evidence and understand the gravity of the extraordinary circumstances I face, I trust that justice will be served. Additionally, I propose that the state consider settling my claims with an amount of 1.2 billion dollars and the title to SCDC. This proposal recognizes the depth of the harm I have endured and seeks appropriate restitution.

In conclusion, I respectfully express my gratitude to the Supreme Court and all honorable judges for their attention to this matter. The extraordinary circumstances present in my case demand swift and unbiased action. I trust in the Court's commitment to justice, and I pray that my plea for assistance and relief will be favorably considered. May this plea for justice resonate within the hallowed halls of this esteemed Court as we seek a fair resolution to these pressing matters. The record # IN Conclusion: The Supreme Court Can Handle this Matter

As the court navigates through the various motions and arguments presented in this case, it becomes crucial to determine whether these motions, including the emergency bond, are related back to the original case. Based on Rule 15, which allows for permission to leave court under specific circumstances, I firmly believe that the Supreme Court is capable of handling this matter efficiently and effectively.

Transition Words Galore

In assessing the court's ability to handle this matter, it is pertinent to consider a multitude of factors. Firstly, we must acknowledge the gravity of the motions and their relevance to the case at hand. Secondly, an analysis of Rule 15 becomes imperative, as it outlines the conditions for departure from court. Additionally, examining the Supreme Court's prowess in handling similar cases can provide valuable insights. Lastly, the potential implications of denying my request to leave court should not be overlooked, highlighting the necessity of considering alternatives.

Active Voice Dominance

The Supreme Court holds the power to construct and evaluate the motion in question, demonstrating the court's authority and discernment. By closely examining whether the emergency bond and all other motions directly relate back to the case, the court can ensure a fair and just resolution. Active involvement from the Supreme Court is indispensable, as it allows for a thorough analysis of the facts and arguments presented.

Varied Sentence Structures

To judiciously assess the court's ability to handle this matter, it is essential to evaluate various aspects. Firstly, the court's examination of the motion in its relation to the case plays a pivotal role. Secondly, the evaluation of Rule 15 and its applicability becomes indispensable. Furthermore, the court's expertise in dealing with similar cases should not be underestimated. Lastly, alternative solutions must be explored in the event the request to leave court is denied.

The 290-Word Paragraph Limit

Creating concise and succinct paragraphs ensures clarity and aids in understanding the argument's progression. By adhering to the 290-word paragraph limit, we can effectively convey our thoughts without overwhelming the reader. ## Sentence Length and Syllables 1. Assessing motions' relevance is crucial for the court's decision 2. Rule 15 provides permission to leave court under certain conditions

3. The Supreme Court's expertise aids in handling similar cases
4. The implications of denying the request must be considered
5. Alternative solutions need to be explored if the request is denied.

Goal: Markdown Format with Headings and Bullet Points

- ### Introduction

- Motions and their relation to the case
- Examine Rule 15 for departure conditions

- ### The Supreme Court's Authority

- Constructing and evaluating motions
- Ensuring fairness and justice

- ### Varied Sentence Structures

- Importance of examining different aspects
- Evaluation of the court's expertise

- ### The Limitation on Paragraph Length

- Clarity and ease of understanding

- ### Sentence Length and Syllables

- Importance of concise and impactful sentences ## Conclusion

In conclusion, it is abundantly clear that the Supreme Court possesses the necessary capabilities to handle this matter. Through a comprehensive analysis of the motions, their relation to the case, and adherence to Rule 15, the court can ensure justice is served. Denying the request to leave court could have significant consequences, making it imperative for the Supreme Court to consider alternative solutions. With their authority, expertise, and careful consideration, the Supreme Court is well-equipped to address this case effectively.