1 what's going on, think about what I presented, think
2 about the facts, everything that I've stated inside
3 of my situation. Think about how I was not really, 4 you know, able to exercise my -- or live within the 5 constitution. I was not able to say certain things.
6 I was not able to bring up certain things. I was not 7 able to show y'all certain things without having to 8 check in with people who was going to make me give 9 so, so many reasons of why this, you know, should be 10 presented. Extensive amounts of reasons why I should 11 present this. I got to argue, you know, go to -- 12 just do -- go out my way to be able to present things 13 that, you know, I was referring to related to my 14 situation. The State, they just -- yeah, this is 15 this. This is that. This is that. Every objection 16 I made, everything I made was completely disregarded.

17 Like I said, I haven't been able to live within 18 my constitution. Multiple reasons. You know, First 19 Amendment, Fourth Amendment, Fifth Amendment, 14th
20 Amendment. Every last one of my constitutional 21 rights has been, you know, suppressed or silenced.
22 So everything that I have that I can present to y'all
23 today is, you know, everything that I have. I don't 24 have -- I presented the law. I presented rulings of 25 higher courts, which is higher than these courts.

1 The Supreme Court, which are the ones who actually 2 make and create laws, have stated that just because 3 mere proximity or presence of a gun and drugs
4 together -- The State still has the burden of proof 5 to connect these items together and say that they 6 were used together.

7 Without somebody being able to testify and say 8 yeah, look, on this day, I went and purchased some 9 drugs from Mr.~Kennedy and he had an AR-15 rifle on 10 the table. Somebody actually testify and say that, 11 how could you connect drugs to guns? So possession 12 of a weapon during the commission of a violent crime, 13 I should not be found guilty for. I mean, it's just 14 -- according to the law and according to what I've 15 stated about the law, I don't know what The State 16 plans to introduce, but everything I stated about the 17 law is verbatim. Word for word. Down to the coal, 18 down to the breakdown.

19 As far as trafficking knowledge, I didn't ever 20 claim to have knowledge of methamphetamine, heroin or 21 Carfentanil. Knowledge -- possession with intent to 22 distribute, without somebody here present to say that 23 on this date, I purchased drugs from Mr.~Kennedy or 24 numerous people here to say so oh, yeah, I purchased 25 drugs from Mr.~Kennedy. He's also charged with

1 distribution of these drugs. We have evidence to 2 prove that he engaged in this distribution of 3 narcotics. You cannot prove that the possession of 4 anything was used for a specific reason. There's no
5 way to prove that. You have no way to prove that 6 besides what you believe and what you think and your 7 assertions based on non-illegal items.

8 Hydraulic press, not illegal. A blender is not 9 illegal. Scales are not illegal. Not only are they 10 not illegal, these officers failed to test these 11 items to see okay, well, let's see if there's drug 12 residue on there. If somebody was making bricks of 13 cocaine, I don't see anything white on this. I see 14 dirt on it. I see brown stuff, just like dirt. If I 15 was --

16 Could I grab this? I don't know if I can move 17 -- can I grab this and move this?

18 THE COURT: As long as it doesn't mess it up.

19 MR. KENNEDY: As you can see, there's nothing -- 20 there's no type of white substance that would match 21 what they were saying would be used for that. So to 22 say that was used to do whatever with drugs, there's 23 no residue. There's nothing on it.

24 So to say that household regular item, which 25 were -- they were not tested. Anything could have

1 been placed there at the time. The blender, these 2 are household -- to say that oh, yeah, he sells drugs 3 because these items are normally used by people who 4 sell drugs. It's not -- The State did not meet its 5 burden to prove that I possessed -- knowingly 6 possessed illegal substance with the intentions of 7 trafficking, you know, to distribute, manufacture, 8 sell -- manufacture and sell go hand-in-hand
9 together. So manufacture, sell is like make a sell 10 for, you know, U.S. currency. The State has no 11 burden of proof.

12 The only way that The State or anybody could 13 prove that I possess something with the intentions to 14 distribute it is if somebody was here to say hey, 15 look, on this date, you know, I'm a confidential 16 informant or -- or, at least, even being charged with 17 a distribution. Or say that I bought drugs from 18 Mr.~Kennedy. Then that would give you probable 19 reason to believe, okay, well, you got somebody here 20 saying that they bought drugs from you and you got 21 caught with drug, yeah, you use those drugs to sell.
22 But to say based on my knowledge and experience and 23 training, just because you have these types of items 24 that they're used to sell narcotics. I mean, to find 25 me guilty, The State has not met its burden to fit

1 the two elements of trafficking, which is knowingly 2 possessing and possession with intent to distribute,
3 manufacture, sell, anything of that nature.

4 Like I say, once again, I'm not going to hold 5 y'all up. I appreciate just, you know, the duty that 6 y'all -- the diligent that y'all serve, you know, by, 7 at least, listening to my situation and my 8 circumstances. But to find me guilty of these 9 offenses would be -- it would be wrong. It would be 10 wrong for my peers to find me guilty for something 11 I've already, you know, proven based on law and 12 proven the ill intention and motive of officers who 13 are upset with me for some reason. You know, I've 14 got a record. They can probably -- they pull me 15 over, they can see my record. I got a record. I've 16 been charged with offenses that have been dismissed 17 against me.

18 Because Greenville County believes that whenever 19 somebody says something, that's what it is, that's 20 how they operate. They arrest you and lock you up.
21 So they probably look at me like a person like oh,
22 this individual, he's gotten away with something 23 before. We going to get him. Or oh, yeah, we almost 24 had him that night, he had to have something. We 25 couldn't find it. He had a large amount of money.

1 We know he's a drug dealer, let's go in his house
2 illegally. And guess what, if we don't find what 3 we're looking for, this is what we going to do. We 4 going to place whatever we want to place there. Me
5 claiming oh, yeah, whatever you find is mine and it 6 is what it is.

7 I know what you going to find. You're going to 8 find marijuana and you're going to find firearms. I 9 claimed it. It is what it is. I was confident.
10 That's why I was like, man, you know, all right, do 11 your thing. But if I knew that was there, automatic,
12 I be like, man, I don't know -- ain't nothing, I 13 don't know, you know what I'm saying? I claim 14 anything illegal because, you know, not only did I 15 want my girlfriend to get involved in anything 16 because she didn't have a record, but I didn't want 17 them to charge her with illegally possessing a 18 firearm or anything of that nature, marijuana, 19 anything because she has children. So, of course, 20 I'm going to be a man and I'll be like, that's mine.

21 But if I knew that this was going to be put 22 there or this was there, man, look, there's no way.
23 There's no way. I don't know nothing about this.
24 They put it there, that's what happened. But me not 25 knowing what's going on in the circumstances, that's

1 why he was on body cam when I said some weed. I'm 2 like some weed, man. That's the only thing to my 3 knowledge that I possessed. Everything else was put 4 there by these individuals.

5 I mean, I don't know what else I can do to prove 6 to you, you know, I been victimized. You know, my 7 constitutional rights haven't been honored or 8 respected and I don't know what else to do. The only 9 thing I can do is appreciate y'all for listening and 10 the ones who actually going to, you know, use 11 individuality to make their own determination and 12 decision based on what I presented. And everything 13 that has been presented by me and The State, just, 14 you know, fair probability and just, you know, 15 logical, just common sense. Keep in mind that what 16 happens, there are a lot of instances where law 17 enforcement do wrong things.

18 Law enforcement don't get held accountable for a 19 lot things they do because that badge makes them feel 20 that they're above the law. So by them feeling that 21 they're above the law, they feel like oh, this is a 22 black man, he's like 27. He don't know nothing about 23 the law. We fixing to violate his rights. We fixing 24 to go in his house. We fixing to get him because we 25 feel like he got away from us the first time. And

1 that's what happened. That's why that officer stated 2 that, do you remember me? Which these officers never 3 brought up. They all friends. I mean, they can say 4 they don't do whatever, they all drink coffee, they 5 do whatever they do. They maybe associate outside of 6 work, I don't know what they do, but they all know 7 each other. And all this comes from, you know, me
8 being targeted by Officer Lapek, who was not here.
9 These officers testified that she was present, but 10 she's not here. Her name is on the incident report 11 where I was pulled over days before. Other officers 12 were there, it was five or six of them. Matter of 13 fact, every officer that's part of the CRT was there 14 and responded to my knowledge. They the ones that I 15 observed on camera.

16 I have nothing else to say to the jury.

17 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Grounsell.

18 CLOSING STATEMENT

19 MR. GROUNSELL: I'll try to be brief. I told 20 you at the beginning of the trial, Mr.~Kennedy chose 21 to represent himself and that's still the case. I 22 also told you there would be times -- that there's 23 rules of the court, courtroom procedure and there's 24 rules of evidence and that Mr.~Kennedy probably would 25 not be familiar with those and there would be times

1 that I would have to object. And that's exactly what 2 I did. I have to hold him to the same standard I 3 would hold a defense attorney. And that was his 4 choice and that's how we moved forward with this 5 case.

6 Two, The Judge, he is the arbiter of the law in 7 this courtroom. Anything that Mr.~Kennedy just read, 8 the case law, is not the law of this courtroom.
9 Whatever Judge Morgan gives you, that is what we're 10 following. The operative word in the indictment that 11 he wants to allege has to show manufacturing, 12 distribution and selling, in between each one of 13 these things, there's the word or. Knowingly sell, 14 manufacture, deliver or bring into the State of South 15 Carolina or did knowingly provide financial 16 assistance or otherwise aid, abet, attempt or 17 conspire to sell, manufacture, deliver or bring into 18 the state. And, finally, or was knowingly in actual 19 or constructive possession of 28 grams or more, but 20 less than 100 grams of methamphetamine, or was 21 knowingly in actual or constructive possession of 14
22 grams up to 28 grams of heroin. It's only about 23 showing constructive possession. The State doesn't 24 have any other burden than that.

25 Four, we've already talked about the marijuana

1 that was alongside the heroin and the meth in the 2 car. And, also, the marijuana was found right in 3 front of the bag of drugs that was on the window 4 sill. So him trying to explain conveniently that the 5 only thing that he's going to own up is marijuana is 6 sort of ridiculous.

7 Fifth thing, the testimony was clear where this 8 glove was found. This glove was found in that bag 9 with the rest of the dope. It was photographed as 10 soon as it was taken out and we know that from the 11 pictures that we have in front of us. And that the 12 officers testified as to how the search warrant is 13 taken place, things are photographed in place and 14 when something is opened, it's immediately 15 photographed after.

16 Now, it seems that Mr.~Kennedy is upset with 17 people that didn't have body cams, but he also seems 18 to be upset with people who do have body cams. He's 19 not going to be satisfied regardless of what we give 20 him. Onto the previous traffic stop. We don't know 21 anything about that traffic stop. The State doesn't 22 know anything about that traffic stop, but it has 23 nothing to do with this case at hand. There's been 24 no testimony to that from anybody. The officers in 25 here who have testified don't have any knowledge

1 about what Mr.~Kennedy is talking about. And he says 2 that he was a victim of police brutality, but from 3 his own admission, even if that story was true, he 4 wasn't arrested and he said no money was seized. It 5 sounds like he got to go home afterwards.

6 These baseless allegations against law 7 enforcement here today absent any proof is 8 infuriating. You have two different places that were 9 searched by two different officers who are part of 10 two different agencies. To pretend that the 11 corruption of our law enforcement in Greenville
12 County is that corrupt is absurd and it's ridiculous.
13 It's offensive to these people who risk their lives 14 everyday for us out in our community and it's 15 ridiculous to hear that in this courtroom. I hope 16 that you can see through his hollow arguments and 17 that you return a verdict of guilty. Thank you.

18 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen,
19 before I charge you the law, let's take a little 20 restroom break. We've been going at it a little bit.
21 Some of you may want to take just a quick restroom 22 break. So I'm going to excuse you to do that. It's 23 not going to be a long break, just a little short 24 one. Stretch your legs and use the restroom, then 25 I'll bring you back out here and instruct you on the 1 law.

2 (WHEREUPON, the jury left open court at
3 approximately 1:27 p.m.)

4 THE COURT: All right, we'll be in recess, I'll 5 come back and charge the law.

6 (WHEREUPON, a short break was taken.)

7 (WHEREUPON, the jury entered open court at 8 approximately 1:34 p.m.)

9 JURY CHARGE

10 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen, we 11 have now reached that part of the trial, which is the 12 last part before you deliberate on the case. And 13 that is my job of charging you the law in the case.
14 And let me preface it by saying that the law in the 15 case is derived from our appellate courts. That 16 includes the South Carolina Court of Appeals and the 17 South Carolina Supreme Court, as well as our 18 legislature, among other courts. So that is where 19 the law comes from. This is not my law. My job and 20 responsibility as the trial judge is to instruct you 21 on what the law is here in South Carolina. So with 22 that in mind, again, this is not my law that I have 23 created, I'm simply instructing you on what the law
24 is in South Carolina.

25 All right, in this case, the indictments charge

1 the Defendant with the following, trafficking
2 methamphetamine, trafficking heroin, possession of a
3 controlled substance with intent to distribute and 4 three indictments for possession of a weapon during 5 the commission of a violent crime.

6 I remind you that the fact The Defendant was 7 arrested, charged and indicted in this case is not 8 evidence and cannot be considered by you as evidence 9 of guilt in this case, nor does it create any 10 presumption of inference of guilt. These documents 11 are simply the formal written instruments which 12 contain the charges made against The Defendant. They 13 are the formal documents by which this case is 14 brought into court before you here today.

15 I want to remind you that during this trial, you 16 and I have had certain duties to perform. As the 17 trial Judge, it is my responsibility to preside over 18 the trial of this case. And I also have the duty to 19 rule on the admissibility of the evidence offered 20 during the trial. You are to consider only the 21 competent evidence before you. If there was any 22 testimony ordered stricken from the record in this 23 case during this trial, you must disregard that 24 testimony. You are to consider only the testimony 25 which has been presented from the witness stand and

1 any exhibits which may have been part of the record
2 in this case.

3 I have the additional duty to charge you the law
4 applicable to this case. As the presiding Judge, I 5 am the sole judge of the law of this case and it is 6 your duty as jurors to accept and apply the law as I 7 now state it to you. If you already have any idea as 8 to what the law is or what the law ought to be and it
9 does not agree with what I now tell you, then you 10 must abandon this idea because you are sworn to 11 accept the law and apply the law exactly as I state 12 it to you.

13 In every case tried in this court before a jury, 14 the jury becomes the sole and exclusive judge of the 15 facts. A trial judge cannot state, comment on or 16 make any statement to the jury about the facts in a 17 case. Since you, the jury, are the sole judges of 18 the facts in this case, you are not to infer from 19 what I have said during the progress of this trial in 20 ruling upon the admissibility of evidence or 21 otherwise or anything that I say now during this 22 instruction to you that I have any opinion about the 23 facts in this case. The law does not allow me to 24 have an opinion about the facts. This is a matter 25 solely for you, the jury, to determine. As jurors,

1 it is your duty to determine the effect, the value
2 and weight of evidence presented during the trial.
3 And because the law does not allow me to have any 4 opinion on the facts, I do not.

5 The indictments in this case, as I have stated 6 previously, there are six indictments for each of the 7 ones I have previously mentioned. Each of these 8 indictments is a separate and distinct offense. You 9 must decide each indictment separately on the 10 evidence and the law applicable to it uninfluenced by 11 your decision as to any other indictment. The 12 Defendant may be convicted or acquitted on any or all 13 of the offenses charged. You will be asked to write 14 a separate verdict of guilty or not guilty for each 15 indictment. And I will explain that to you when I go 16 over the verdict form at the end of my charge here.

17 Now, The Defendant has pled not guilty to these 18 indictments. And that plea puts the burden on The 19 State to prove The Defendant guilty. A person
20 charged with committing a criminal offense in South 21 Carolina is never required to prove himself innocent.
22 I charge you that it is an important rule of law that 23 a defendant in a criminal trial, no matter what the 24 seriousness of the charge may be, will always be 25 presumed to be innocent of the crime for which the

1 indictments were issued unless guilt has been proven
2 by evidence satisfying you of that guilt beyond a 3 reasonable doubt.

4 This presumption of innocence does not end when 5 you begin your deliberations, but it accompanies the 6 Defendant throughout his trial until you reach a 7 verdict of guilt based on the evidence satisfying you 8 of that guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. The 9 presumption of innocence is just like a robe of 10 righteousness placed about the shoulders of The 11 Defendant, which remains with The Defendant until it 12 has been stripped from The Defendant by evidence
13 satisfying you of The Defendant's guilt beyond a 14 reasonable doubt. The presumption of innocence is 15 not merely legal theory, it is not just a legal 16 phrase, it is a substantial right to which every 17 defendant is entitled unless you, the jury, are 18 satisfied from the evidence of the Defendant's guilt 19 beyond a reasonable doubt.

20 The State has the burden of proving The 21 Defendant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. Some of 22 you may have served as jurors in civil cases where 23 you were told that it is only necessary to prove that 24 a fact is more likely true than not true, such as by 25 the greater weight of the evidence or by a

1 preponderance of the evidence.

2 Proof beyond a reasonable doubt is proof that 3 leaves you firmly convinced of the Defendant's guilt.
4 There are very few things in this world that we know 5 with absolute certainty. In criminal law -- or in 6 criminal cases, the law does not require proof that 7 overcomes every possible doubt. If based on your 8 consideration of the evidence, you are firmly 9 convinced that The Defendant is guilty of the crimes 10 charged, you must find the Defendant guilty. If on 11 the other hand, you think there is a real possibility 12 that The Defendant is not guilty, you must give The 13 Defendant the benefit of the doubt and find him not 14 guilty.

15 The following things are not evidence and you 16 must not consider them as evidence in deciding the 17 facts of this case. Any statements and arguments of 18 the parties in the case, any questions and objections 19 of the parties, or testimony that I have instructed 20 you to disregard.

21 There are two types of evidence which are 22 generally presented during a trial. Direct evidence 23 and circumstantial evidence. Direct evidence 24 directly proves the existence of a fact and does not 25 require deduction. Circumstantial evidence is proof

1 of a chain of facts and circumstances indicating the 2 existence of a fact. Crimes may be proven by 3 circumstantial evidence. The law makes no
4 distinction between the weight or value to be given 5 to either direct or circumstantial evidence.
6 However, to the extent The State relies on 7 circumstantial evidence, all of the circumstances 8 must be consistent with each other and when taken 9 together, point conclusively to the guilt of the 10 accused beyond a reasonable doubt. If these 11 circumstances -- or if these circumstances merely 12 portray the Defendant's behavior as suspicious, the 13 proof has failed. The State has the burden of 14 proving the Defendant guilty beyond a reasonable 15 doubt. And this burden rests with The State
16 regardless of whether The state relies on direct 17 evidence, circumstantial evidence or some combination 18 of both.

19 Necessarily, during this trial, you must 20 determine credibility of witnesses who have testified 21 in this case. Credibility simply means 22 believability. It becomes your duty, as jurors, to 23 analyze and to evaluate the evidence. In determining 24 the believability of witnesses who have testified in 25 this case, you may believe one witness over several

1 witnesses or several witnesses over one witness. You 2 may believe a part of the testimony of a witness and 3 reject the remaining part of the testimony of that 4 same witness. You may believe the testimony of a 5 witness in its entirety or reject the testimony of a 6 witness in its entirety. You may consider whether 7 any witness has exhibited to you any interest, bias, 8 prejudice or other motive in this case. You may also 9 consider the appearance and manner of a witness while 10 on the witness stand.

11 The rules of evidence ordinarily do not permit 12 witnesses to testify to opinions or conclusions. An 13 exception to this rule exist for witnesses we call 14 expert witnesses. A witness who by education and 15 experience has become expert in some art, science, 16 profession or calling -- any expert who has become an 17 expert in some art, science, profession or calling 18 may state an opinion as to any relevant and material 19 matters in which the witness claims to be a expert.
20 They may also state the reasons for the opinion.

21 You should consider any expert opinion received 22 as evidence in this case just like any other evidence 23 and give it the weight you think it deserves. If you 24 decide that the opinion of an expert witness is not 25 based on sufficient education and experience or if

1 you conclude that the reasons given in support of the 2 opinion are not sound or that the opinion is 3 outweighed by other evidence, you may disregard the 4 opinion entirely. An expert witness' testimony is to 5 be given no greater weight than that of other 6 witnesses simply because the witness is a expert.
7 Further, you're not required to accept an expert's 8 opinion even though it is not contradicted.

9 I instruct you and emphasize that the fact that 10 The Defendant in this case did not testify and is not 11 a factor to be considered by you in any way in your 12 deliberations and in your consideration on the 13 question of guilt or innocence of The Defendant. It 14 must be not be considered by you in any manner 15 whatsoever. A defendant has the constitutional right 16 to remain silent. And the assertion of this right 17 must not be considered by you in deliberations.

18 I repeat, under your oath, you're to draw no 19 conclusion whatsoever from the fact that The 20 Defendant in this case did not testify. The fact 21 that this Defendant did not testify should not be 22 even discussed in the jury room. The burden of 23 proof, as I have stated to you, is on The State. The 24 Defendant is not required to prove his innocence.
25 The burden of proof remains on The State to prove

1 guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

2 The statement or statements alleged to have been 3 made by the Defendant in this case has been admitted 4 into evidence. The Court has determined that the 5 statements are admissible. I instruct you that you 6 make the ultimate decision of whether or not The 7 Defendant made the statement. If The Defendant did 8 make the statement, you must determine whether the 9 statement was made by The Defendant voluntarily and 10 of his own freewill. This means that the statement 11 was not caused by pressure, force, fear, threats, 12 coercion or intimidation or by hope or promise of 13 leniency or reward of any kind.

14 In determining whether the statement was 15 voluntary, you should consider both the 16 characteristics of The Defendant and the details of 17 the questioning. Some of the factors that you must 18 consider are the age of The Defendant, The 19 Defendant's education or lack of education, The 20 Defendant's mental ability or capacity, The 21 Defendant's intelligence or IQ, The Defendant's 22 background and environment, the place and length of 23 detention, the nature of the questioning and the 24 advice or lack thereof to The Defendant of his 25 constitutional rights. Including but not limited to

1 the right to remain silent, that any statement could 2 be used against him in a court of law, the right to 3 have a lawyer present, that if he could not afford a 4 lawyer, a lawyer would be appointed to represent him
5 without any costs and that he could stop making a 6 statement at any time.

7 You must carefully consider all the surrounding 8 circumstances before you give any weight to any 9 alleged statement. The State has the burden, as I've 10 said, of proving beyond a reasonable doubt that the 11 statement was voluntary. If you determine it was, 12 you may give the statement -- you may give the 13 statement any further consideration you deem proper.
14 You must decide what weight, if any, should be given 15 to the alleged statements. If you determine the 16 alleged statements were not free and voluntary 17 statements of The Defendant, you should not consider 18 the statements at all.

19 In order to establish criminal liability, 20 criminal intent is required. For example, the mental 21 state required to be proven by The State of a 22 particular crime might be purpose, intent, knowledge, 23 recklessness or criminal negligence. Criminal intent
24 must be proven by The State beyond a reasonable 25 doubt. Criminal intent is always a matter that must

1 be determined by the jury from the circumstances 2 surrounding the situation.

3 There's no way to prove intent to a mathematical 4 certainty. There's no way medical science can 5 dissect a person's brain and determine what the 6 person had in mind. So the law says that criminal 7 intent may be inferred from the circumstances shown 8 to have existed. This is how you make a 9 determination of whether or not the element requiring 10 intent was present. It is not necessary to establish 11 intent by direct and positive evidence. But intent 12 may be established by inference in the same way as 13 any other fact by taking into consideration the acts 14 of the parties and all of the facts and circumstances 15 of the case.

16 Criminal intent is a mental state, a conscious 17 wrongdoing. It is up to you to determine what The 18 Defendant intended to do, based on the circumstances
19 shown to have existed. Criminal intent can arise 20 from action or a failure to act. It may arise from 21 negligence, recklessness or an indifference to duty 22 or to consequences that is considered by the law to 23 be the equivalent of criminal intent.

24 The Defendant is charged with trafficking
25 methamphetamine. The State must prove beyond a

1 reasonable doubt that The Defendant knowingly sold,
2 manufactured, cultivated, delivered, purchased,
3 brought into the state, provided financial assistance
4 or otherwise, aided, abetted, attempted or conspired
5 to sell, manufacture, cultivate, deliver, purchase or 6 bring into this state and was knowingly in actual or 7 constructive possession. Knowingly attempted -- 8 knowingly attempted to become in actual or 9 constructive possession of methamphetamine.

10 The State must also prove beyond a reasonable 11 doubt that the amount of methamphetamine was more 12 than 28 grams, but less than 100 grams. To have 13 possession, The State must prove beyond a reasonable 14 doubt that The Defendant had both the power and the 15 intent to control the disposition or use of the 16 methamphetamine.

17 Possession may be either actual or constructive.
18 Actual possession means that the methamphetamine was 19 in the actual physical custody of the Defendant.
20 Constructive possession means that the Defendant had 21 dominion control or the right to exercise dominion or 22 control over either the methamphetamine itself or the 23 property on which the methamphetamine was found.
24 Mere presence at the scene where the drugs were found 25 is not enough to prove possession. The Defendant's

1 knowledge and possession may be inferred when the 2 substance is found on the property under the 3 Defendant's control. However, this inference is 4 simply an evidentiary fact to be taken into 5 consideration by you, along with the other evidence 6 in the case and to be given the weight you decide it
7 should have. When determining the weight of a 8 controlled substance or drug, the weight of any drug 9 or controlled substance referenced is the weight of 10 that substance in pure form or a compound or a 11 mixture thereof.

12 The Defendant is charged with trafficking
13 heroin. The State must prove beyond a reasonable
14 doubt that The Defendant knowingly sold,
15 manufactured, cultivated, delivered, purchased,
16 brought into the state, provided financial assistance
17 or otherwise aided, abetted, attempted or conspired
18 to sell, manufacture, cultivate, deliver, purchase or 19 bring into the state and was knowingly in actual or 20 constructive possession and knowingly attempted to be 21 in actual or constructive possession of heroin. The 22 State must also prove beyond a reasonable doubt that 23 the amount of heroin was 14 grams or more, but less 24 than 10 grams.

25 I have previously defined for you what direct --

1 I mean, excuse me, actual and constructive
2 possession. And the same definition applied that 3 I've just instructed you of what actual and 4 constructive possession is for the methamphetamine
5 also applies to the heroin.

6 Again, I have also told you that when 7 determining the weight of a controlled substance, the 8 weight of any controlled substance or drug, is the 9 weight of that substance or drug in pure form or in 10 compound or mixture thereof.

11 The Defendant is charged with possession with 12 intent to distribute Carfentanil. The State must 13 prove beyond a reasonable doubt that The Defendant 14 possessed Carfentanil with the intent to distribute.
15 Again, I have defined for you what actual and 16 constructive possession is. The same definition 17 applies here.

18 The State must prove beyond a reasonable doubt 19 that The Defendant intended to distribute 20 Carfentanil. Distribute means to deliver, other than 21 by administering or dispensing a drug. Intent may be 22 shown by acts and conduct of the Defendant and other 23 circumstances from which you may naturally and 24 reasonably infer intent.

25 In determining whether The Defendant had the

1 intent to distribute Carfentanil, you may consider 2 the circumstances surrounding the Defendant's alleged 3 possession. You may consider the amount of the 4 substance to alleged to have been possessed, the 5 manner in which it was allegedly possessed, the place 6 where it was allegedly possessed and any other 7 factors that you consider to be important. You must 8 find that The Defendant did not intend to have the 9 Carfentanil solely for his own use.

10 The Defendant has also been charged under three 11 indictments with possession of a weapon during the 12 commission of or attempt to commit a violent crime.
13 He is charged with possession of a weapon during the 14 commission of a violent crime. The State must prove 15 beyond a reasonable doubt that The Defendant was in 16 possession of a firearm or visibly displayed what 17 appeared to be a firearm during the commission of a 18 violent crime. A firearm means any machine gun, 19 automatic rifle, revolver, pistol or any weapon which 20 will or is designed to or may be readily converted to 21 expel a projectile.

22 In order to find The Defendant guilty of 23 possession of a weapon during the commission of a
24 violent crime, you must first find The Defendant
25 guilty of either committing a violent crime or

1 attempting to commit a violent crime. Under the law,
2 trafficking heroin is a violent crime. The State
3 must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the weapon
4 furthered, advanced or helped in the commission of 5 the crime.

6 Ladies and gentlemen, a verdict in this case 7 cannot be based upon sympathy, passion, prejudice or 8 emotion or some other consideration not found in the 9 evidence before you.

10 Let me say something about deliberations.
11 Deliberations has often been defined as careful 12 consideration weighing up with a view to a decision.
13 The genius of our jury system, ladies and gentlemen, 14 is that it allows 12 good men and woman from 12 15 different backgrounds, life experiences and 16 perspectives to consider the evidence in this case, 17 to talk about the evidence in this case and to,
18 ultimately, reach a verdict.

19 We call them deliberations for a reason. You 20 are to consider the evidence in this case carefully 21 and deliberately and discuss it in a calm, thorough 22 and courteous manner. Remember, you are not 23 partisans or advocates for either side. You don't 24 favor one side over the other. You are judges of the 25 facts. Listen to the views of all of your fellow

1 jurors, consider other people's points of view and 2 talk through and discuss the evidence. And remember, 3 if you are doing something deliberately, you're not 4 in a big hurry. And you should not be in a big hurry
5 here. This case is very important to both The State 6 and to Mr. Kennedy and this is their only day in 7 court.

8 When you retire to the jury room, you should 9 discuss the case with your fellow jurors and reach an 10 agreement if you can do so. Your verdict must be 11 unanimous. All 12 of you must reach the verdict.
12 Each of you must decide the case for yourself, but 13 you should do so only after you have impartially 14 considered all the evidence, discussed it fully with 15 the other jurors and listened to the views of your 16 fellow jurors. Do not be afraid to change your 17 opinion if the discussion persuades you and do not 18 come to a decision simply because other jurors think 19 it is right. It is important that you attempt to 20 reach a unanimous verdict, but, of course, only if 21 each of you can do so after having made your own 22 decision. Do not change an honest belief about the 23 weight and effect of the evidence simply to reach a 24 verdict. In other words, do not change your opinion 25 solely for the sake of reaching a unanimous verdict.

1 All right. There are two possible verdicts
2 which you may find in this case, guilty or not 3 guilty.

4 Mr. Preston, would you give a copy of that to 5 Madam Forelady? Thank you.

6 All right, Madam Forelady, a copy of the verdict
7 form is before you. You will see that it sets out
8 each of the six indictments. And under each 9 indictment, you will see guilty or not guilty. Let 10 me tell you this, there is no particular order of why 11 guilty is first or not guilty. Do not consider that.
12 Do not take that into consideration. It has to be 13 one or the other. That is solely why it is there.

14 So under the first -- paragraph number one, as 15 to the charge of trafficking methamphetamine, we, the 16 jury, unanimously find The Defendant, Michael Justin 17 Kennedy, and you will check one of those boxes.

18 And that will be the same for the next one,
19 trafficking heroin, for the next one, possession of a 20 controlled substance with intent to distribute, and 21 then the three separate indictments, all the same 22 charge, but three separate indictments for three 23 different weapons. And I have set out the indictment 24 numbers for each one of those. And you will check 25 the appropriate places on those. So once you -- the

1 jury has reached a verdict, if you have come to a 2 unanimous decision, then you will sign right there, 3 the foreperson, knock on the door and let the 4 bailiffs know that you have reached a verdict.

5 Now, I'm going to send you to your room right
6 now, jury room right now. I've got to just make sure 7 from the parties that I have instructed you properly.
8 They will let me know. If I have not, I may have to 9 bring you back in here. But if I don't, I will then 10 send word to the bailiffs to let you know that you 11 are ready to begin deliberations and we will provide 12 the evidence for you and bring it back to the jury 13 room.

14 We have ordered lunch. I hope all of you have 15 ordered lunch, so that should be coming to you, 16 hopefully, shortly here. So I'm going to excuse you 17 for now and if there are no exceptions, then I will 18 give word to you that you are free to start 19 deliberating. Thank you.

20 (WHEREUPON, the jury left open court at
21 approximately 2:03 p.m.)

22 THE COURT: All right, exception from The State?

23 MR. GROUNSELL: No, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Any exception from The Defendant?

25 MR. KENNEDY: No, sir.

1 THE COURT: All right. All right, if y'all
2 would check, make sure that we got all the evidence
3 here. Now, as far as the weapons, is there any ammo 4 up there?

5 MR. GROUNSELL: No, ammo in the box with each 6 one.

7 THE COURT: All right, I want you take the ammo 8 out of the boxes.

9 MR. GROUNSELL: Okay.

10 THE COURT: Send weapons back there. If they 11 want the see the ammo then we can send that back 12 there and bring back the weapons. I don't want the 13 weapon and the ammo back there at the same time.
14 Y'all make sure, start compiling, get the exhibits, 15 make sure everything is there so we can send it back 16 to them.

17 Mr.~Kennedy, you're free to look, make sure that 18 evidence is there, whatever you want to do.

19 MR. KENNEDY: Your Honor, can I get a copy from 20 the orders or the motions that you denied on my case?

21 THE COURT: Copies of the orders?

22 MR. KENNEDY: Yeah, you know, the motions that 23 were denied, the motion to suppress, motion from the 24 first hearing, motion in limine.

25 THE COURT: That is an oral -- it's in court --

1 the court reporter takes down everything. All of 2 your arguments that were made are on the record and 3 you're protected. It has the arguments you made and 4 the rulings that were made on it. So it's taken down
5 by the court reporter. There's nothing -- there's no 6 paper document.

7 MR. GROUNSELL: Your Honor, on the instructions, 8 I believe on the heroin, you said 14 to 100 grams. I 9 don't know if that -- should say 14 to 28. You may 10 have just misread that.

11 THE COURT: What do you think I read?

12 MR. GROUNSELL: You said 14 to 100 grams. It 13 might have been because you had just read the 14 methamphetamine 28 to 100.

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 MR. GROUNSELL: I just want to make sure the 17 actual instructions were correct on the paper.

18 THE COURT: Well, I tell you what I'm going to 19 do. I probably did say 100 grams, so I think I need 20 -- it's 14 -- all right, I think I'm going to bring 21 them in and clarify that it's got to be between 14 22 grams less than 28 grams.

23 MR. GROUNSELL: Thank you, Your Honor. That's 24 the only thing I caught.

25 THE COURT: All right.

1 (WHEREUPON, the jury entered open court at
2 approximately 2:15 p.m.)

3 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen, I 4 just need to correct one thing. I charged you on 5 trafficking methamphetamine, The State must also 6 prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the amount of 7 methamphetamine was more than 28 grams, but less than 8 100 grams. As far as the heroin, the trafficking
9 heroin, The State must prove beyond a reasonable 10 doubt that the amount of the heroin was 14 grams or 11 more, but less than 28 grams. I had previously said 12 100 grams on the heroin. But the heroin is 14 grams 13 or more, but less than 28 grams and the 14 methamphetamine is more than 28 grams, but less than 15 100 grams. So that's the only change. And you are 16 free to deliberate.

17 The alternate would please stay with us, if you 18 stay right there.

19 I'll excuse the 12 and you may begin your 20 deliberations.

21 (WHEREUPON, the jury left open court and began 22 deliberations at approximately 2:16 p.m.)

23 THE COURT: All right, sir, well, you're now
24 excused from this trial. Unfortunately, or maybe 25 fortunately, whichever way you are looking at it, you

1 will not be deliberating, you're not able to 2 deliberate. But you have been a very important part 3 in this case because, oftentimes, a juror may -- we 4 may have to excuse a juror, so an alternate is 5 extremely important. In those situations, we have to 6 substitute. That could have happened in this case if 7 we had to excuse a juror and we may have had to 8 substitute you. So -- but nobody was excused and 9 those first 12, our jury, have remained here for the 10 trial, so, therefore, you will, unfortunately, not 11 get an opportunity to deliberate.

12 I will excuse you for the day. You are free to 13 go for the rest of the day. If you will report back 14 tomorrow morning to the jury room. If you would be 15 there --

16 Have y'all been reporting at 9:00 in the 17 morning? Not this trial, but --

18 THE CLERK: 9:15, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: 9:15. If you would report back 20 downstairs tomorrow morning at 9:15. All right, 21 thank you.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay, thank you.

23 THE COURT: All right, be in recess until a
24 verdict.

25 (WHEREUPON, court was in recess awaiting a

1 verdict.)

2 THE COURT: All right, we have a question from 3 the jury. The jury question is, Can we have the body 4 camera footage?

5 So we've got a laptop right there, I believe,
6 that we can send in there. They've got the disks.
7 So we can send that in there with them to view the 8 footage.

9 All right. Anything from The State?

10 MR. GROUNSELL: Got no issue with that.

11 THE COURT: Anything from The Defendant?

12 MR. KENNEDY: No, sir.

13 THE COURT: All right. Take it on in there.

14 Thank you.

15 We'll be in recess.

16 (WHEREUPON, Court's Exhibit No. 2 marked for 17 identification.)

18 (WHEREUPON, court was in recess awaiting a
19 verdict.)

20 THE COURT: All right, question from the jury
21 is, If we find him guilty of the drug charges, by law 22 is he by default guilty of the charges four through 23 six? And those are the possession of a weapon during 24 the commission of a violent crime.

25 Mr. Grounsell?

1 MR. GROUNSELL: Your Honor, I don't believe so.
2 They're all separate matters.

3 THE COURT: All right. So we can do one or two 4 things --

5 Mr.~Kennedy, do you have any response? Did you 6 understand what their question was?

7 THE CLERK: No, I don't understand.

8 THE COURT: All right. Says, If we find him
9 guilty of drug charges, by law is he by default 10 guilty of the charges four through six? And those 11 are the possession of a weapon during the commission
12 of a violent crime.

13 So what they're asking is if they were to find 14 you guilty -- they have not found you guilty, but if 15 they were to find you guilty of the drug charges, 16 does that mean you are automatically guilty of the 17 gun charges? And you are not. That is the case, you 18 are not automatically guilty of that.

19 So any suggestion? My thought was just to write 20 back on there no.

21 MR. GROUNSELL: I think that suffices.

22 THE COURT: I can put on there no, that they 23 still have to -- trying to think how I can word it.
24 I can put no or either bring them back and recharge 25 them on possession of a weapon during the commission

1 of a violent crime.

2 Well, what does The State propose?

3 MR. GROUNSELL: Your Honor, simple response
4 would just be no. I don't think it necessarily has 5 to be further instruction to do that.

6 THE COURT: Mr.~Kennedy, do you agree? I mean, 7 the answer is no. You are not guilty by default of 8 those charges if they find you guilty of the others.
9 So my inclination was to just write no, you were not 10 guilty by default. Do you have any objection to 11 that?

12 MR. KENNEDY: No, no, sir.

13 THE COURT: Is that fine with you?

14 Is that fine with everybody?

15 MR. GROUNSELL: That's fine with me.

16 THE COURT: All right, what I'm going to do
17 right now is I'm writing no, signing my name to it.

18 All right. All right, Mr. Preston, Mrs. Fryer, 19 one of y'all.

20 (WHEREUPON, Court's Exhibit No. 3 marked for 21 identification.)

22 THE COURT: All right, we'll be in recess.

23 (WHEREUPON, court was in recess awaiting a
24 verdict.)

25 THE COURT: We have two questions. All right,

1 first question, Is he allowed legally to have 2 possession of the firearms? Question number one.
3 Question number two, Does just having the guns in the 4 house act as the inference for the charge of 5 possession of a weapon during the acting commission
6 of a violent crime?

7 Mr. Grounsell, hear from you.

8 MR. GROUNSELL: Your Honor, the first one is 9 kind of difficult because I think Mr.~Kennedy is 10 lawfully prohibited from having a firearm. Legally, 11 they're probably not supposed to be in his house, but 12 for the sake of this case, I mean, that's --

13 THE COURT: Mr.~Kennedy, do you have any 14 response?

15 MR. KENNEDY: No, sir.

16 THE COURT: Okay. I think what my inclination
17 to do is recharge them on possession of a weapon
18 during the commission of a violent crime. I think 19 that's -- I think that will answer -- I think will 20 answer those questions.

21 So Mr.~Kennedy, do you understand what I'm 22 doing? I'm going to tell them the law again about
23 possession of a weapon during the commission of a 24 violent crime. Do you understand that?

25 MR. KENNEDY: All right.

1 THE COURT: All right, let's bring them on in.
2 Thank you, sir -- or ma'am.

3 (WHEREUPON, Court's Exhibit No. 4 marked for 4 identification.)

5 (WHEREUPON, the jury entered open court at
6 approximately 3:37 p.m.)

7 THE COURT: All right, Madam Forelady, I
8 received another two questions. First question, Is 9 he allowed legally to have possession of the 10 firearms? And question number two, Does just having 11 the guns in the home act as the inference for the 12 charge of possession of a weapon during the acting 13 commission of a violent crime?

14 Did I read those questions correctly? All 15 right, ladies and gentlemen, I'm going to recharge 16 you what the law is on this charge. So if you would 17 just give me your attention.

18 The Defendant is charged with possession of a 19 weapon during the commission of or attempt to commit 20 a violent crime. The State must prove beyond a 21 reasonable doubt that The Defendant was in possession 22 of a firearm or visibly displayed what appeared to be 23 a firearm during the commission of a violent crime.
24 A firearm means any machine gun, automatic rifle, 25 revolver, pistol or any weapon which will or is

1 designed to or may be readily converted to expel a 2 projectile.

3 In order to find The Defendant guilty of
4 possession of a weapon during the commission of a
5 violent crime, you must first find The Defendant
6 guilty of either committing a violent crime or
7 attempting to commit a violent crime. Under the law,
8 trafficking heroin is a violent crime. The State
9 must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the weapon
10 furthered, advanced or helped in the commission of 11 the crime.

12 So I hope that answers it or helps. If it 13 doesn't, just simply write me another question and 14 we'll handle it. I hope that helped and I'll ask you 15 to return.

17 approximately 3:40 p.m. and continued
18 deliberations.)

19 THE COURT: All right, we'll be in recess until 20 then.

21 (WHEREUPON, court was in recess awaiting a
22 verdict.)

23 THE COURT: All right, next question is, Can we 24 have clarity on which firearm matches which 25 indictment number? Again, Can we have clarity on 1 which firearm matches which indictment number?

2 Now, I'll hear from you, but my inclination is 3 to write on the note which indictment matches what.
4 And I have just -- when I got the question, I looked 5 at it. These are obviously questions number four,
6 five, and six on the verdict form. Under question 7 number four is the indictment number
8 2021-GS-23-000619, I wrote the FN nine millimeter
9 handgun. Under number five, which is indictment 10 number 2021-GS23-00538A, I wrote Ruger AR56. And 11 then number six, which 2021-GS-23-000537A, the Ruger 12 380.

13 But I'll hear you, Mr. Grounsell?

14 MR. GROUNSELL: That's correct, Your Honor.
15 That's fine with me.

16 THE COURT: All right, Mr.~Kennedy?

17 (There was no response.)

18 THE COURT: Do you have any objection to me--

19 MR. KENNEDY: No, no, sir.

20 THE COURT: All right. What I'll do is I'll 21 write on the return note and I'll let y'all look at 22 it before I submit it back to them. Just give me a 23 minute.

24 (WHEREUPON, Court's Exhibit No. 5 marked for 25 identification.)

1 THE COURT: If y'all would take a look. I have 2 written on the question the indictment number 3 corresponding to the weapons, so if you would take a 4 look.

5 (WHEREUPON, Mr. Grounsell and Mr.~Kennedy
6 reviewed Court's Exhibit No. 5.)

7 THE COURT: All right, both parties in 8 agreement? Consent to me sending this note back to 9 the jury?

10 MR. GROUNSELL: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

11 MR. KENNEDY: Yes, sir.

12 THE COURT: All right. All right, be in recess.

13 (WHEREUPON, court was in recess awaiting 14 verdict.)

15 THE COURT: Understand we have a verdict.

16 THE BAILIFF: All right, we'll bring them in.

17 (WHEREUPON, the jury entered open court at 18 approximately 4:20 p.m.)

19 THE COURT: So understand you have a unanimous
20 verdict?

21 MADAM FORELADY: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: All right, if you would hand it to 23 the bailiff, please.

24 All right, Mr. Clerk, if you would publish the 25 verdict, please.

1 THE CLERK: This is The State vs. Michael Justin 2 Kennedy, Indictment numbers 2021-GS-23-0620,
3 2021-GS-23-0539A, 2021-GS-23-3572, 2021-GS-23-0619, 4 2021-GS-230538A and 2021-GS-23-0537A. As to the 5 charge of trafficking methamphetamine, we, the jury, 6 unanimously find The Defendant, Michael Justin 7 Kennedy, guilty. As the charge of trafficking
8 heroin, we, the jury, unanimously find The Defendant, 9 Michael Justin Kennedy, guilty. As to the charge of 10 possession of a controlled substance with intent to 11 distribute, we, the jury, unanimously find The 12 Defendant, Michael Justin Kennedy, guilty. As to the 13 charge of possession of a weapon during the 14 commission of a violent crime under indictment number 15 2021-GS-23-0619, we, the jury, unanimously find The 16 Defendant, Michael Justin Kennedy, guilty. As to the 17 charge of possession of a weapon during the 18 commission of a violent crime under Indictment number
19 2021-GS-23-0538A, we, the jury, unanimously find The 20 Defendant, Michael Justin Kennedy, not guilty. And 21 as to the charge of possession of a weapon during the 22 commission of a violent crime under indictment number
23 2021-GS-23-0537A, we, the jury, unanimously find The 24 Defendant, Michael Justin Kennedy, not guilty.

25 THE COURT: All right, from The State, any

1 polling of the jury from The State?

2 MR. GROUNSELL: No, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Any polling of the jury from The 4 Defense?

5 MR. KENNEDY: No, sir.

6 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and gentlemen,
7 that concludes your service in this case. I want to 8 thank you for your attention and your hard work and 9 efforts in this case. And that will end your service 10 here today.

11 Unfortunately, I will have to ask you to come 12 back tomorrow. There may be another case tomorrow, 13 just a small case. So if you would report to the 14 jury room tomorrow morning at 9:15. I'm going to let 15 you step back in the jury room and I'm going to come 16 back and speak to you in just a minute and thank you 17 for your service.

18 (WHEREUPON, the jury left open court and was 19 excused at approximately 4:24 p.m.)

20 THE COURT: All right, we'll have sentencing.
21 I'm going to step back and speak with the jury and 22 give time on the sentencing, then we'll do
23 sentencing.

24 (WHEREUPON, a short break was taken.)

25 SENTENCING

1 THE COURT: All right, I'll hear from The State
2 on sentencing.

3 MR. GROUNSELL: Yes, Your Honor, Mr.~Kennedy
4 does have a prior record that I would like to give 5 you at this time. He has a 2011, burglary second 6 degree times two, grand larceny. 2012, petit 7 larceny. 2013, auto breaking and financial 8 transaction card fraud and burglary second degree.
9 2017, auto breaking, financial transaction card
10 fraud. And 2018, federal charge of possession of a 11 firearm by a felon.

12 Your Honor, obviously, the trafficking heroin
13 charge carries a mandatory minimum of 25 years. That 14 is a substantial sentence. Obviously, Mr.~Kennedy 15 definitely does have a record and the fact that he 16 has sat here for the past couple of days and 17 slandered law enforcement, obviously, is not taken 18 lightly by The State. We will, obviously, leave it 19 in your discretion, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right, Mr.~Kennedy.

21 MR. KENNEDY: As you can see, based on my 22 record, Your Honor, I don't have any previous record 23 of any type -- of no drug offenses. And I was not 24 convicted of auto breaking in 2017. I don't know 25 what The State is referring to. I don't know what

1 he's talking about.

2 But outside of that, you know, I understand that 3 trafficking heroin has a mandatory minimum of 25
4 years. So it's not too much, you know, I can ask you
5 to do. You know, I just deal with the appeal.

6 THE COURT: All right, thank you. As you
7 correctly stated, Mr.~Kennedy, I do not have any 8 discretion on that. It is a mandatory sentence for 9 that charge.

10 All right, anything else from The State?

11 MR. GROUNSELL: No, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right, sentence of the Court 13 under 2021-GS-23-00539A is 25 years with the 14 Department of Corrections. Under 2021-GS-23-00620, 15 the sentence of the Court is 25 years, that is to run 16 concurrent. Under 2021-GS-23-03572, the sentence of 17 the Court is 15 years. That is to run concurrent.
18 And finally, under 2021-GS-23-00619, the sentence of 19 the Court is five years. Those all three -- I mean, 20 all four of these will run concurrent. The Defendant 21 has credit --

22 Do we have any idea what his credit is?

23 MR. GROUNSELL: Yes, Your Honor, he has credit 24 for 698 days.

25 THE COURT: All right. All right, The Defendant

1 has credit for 698 days.

2 Is there anything else?

3 MR. GROUNSELL: Not from The State, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right, good luck to you, sir.

5 (WHEREUPON, the proceedings were concluded.)

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY SOUGHT

Any evidence of illegal drug sales to include any items and/or materials used in the manufacturing, packaging or distribution of illegal drugs to include but not limited to any organic and/or synthetic opioids, cutting agents, scales, bags, containers and any other items related to such sales. Any US currency with serial numbers matching Greenville County Drug Enforcement Unit records and currency or items believed to be the actual proceeds of illegal drug sales. Any papers, records, ledgers, or account records relating to the sale of illegal drugs/proceeds of illegal drug sales and any electronic devices that could be used to store such data. Any electronic communication devices belonging to Michael Kennedy found on/in his person, vehicle, or residence(s).

DESCRIPTION OF PREMISES (PERSON, PLACE OR THING)

TO BE SEARCHED

11 Century Drive, Apartment 1304, is an apartment within the Woodside Eleven Apartment complex, located on Century Drive in Greenville, South Carolina. Apartment 1304 is located on the third floor of the left side, of the first building on the right, when entering the complex from Century Drive. The entry door to Apartment 1304 is white with its door hardware on the right side of the door, a metallic knocker in the upper center of the door, and a blue placard with the numbers "1304" displayed in white that is situated on the adjoining wall to the right of the door when facing the door from the breezeway.

2007 Ford Mustang VIN: 1ZVFT84N075298307, registered to Michael Justin Kennedy.

Any individuals located on this property at the time of the service of this warrant.

Attachment A

I, Investigator J. McWhite, am a sworn law enforcement officer of the Greer Police Department and an Investigator assigned to the Greenville County Multi-Jurisdictional Drug Enforcement Unit (GCMDEU). Since 2013, I have been assigned to special units designed to investigate illegal drug and vice-related crimes. Over the course of my law enforcement career I have investigated hundreds of criminal cases relating to the possession, distribution, and trafficking of illegal drugs. Over the span of my law enforcement career I have received formal and professional criminal justice education degrees and certifications and have completed numerous police training courses specializing in illegal drug investigations. These include Associate's and Bachelor's Degrees in Criminal Justice and a Basic Law Certification from the South Carolina Criminal Justice Academy as well as basic, advanced, and undercover narcotics investigations courses designed for active law enforcement investigators.

Within the past month, I received a tip from a confidential informant that the subject, Michael Justin Kennedy, was selling heroin from and around his Greenville apartment. According to this informant, he/she has witnessed Michael Kennedy sell illegal drugs on multiple occasions in recent months. I researched this subject and found him to have a criminal history which listed prior arrests for larceny, burglary, armed robbery, kidnapping, possessing a weapon during a violent crime, attempted murder and possession of illegal drugs.

Within the past 72 hours, I conducted an undercover operation wherein the subject, Michael Justin Kennedy, distributed a quantity of heroin to a confidential informant working under the direction and supervision of the Greenville County Multi-Jurisdictional Drug Enforcement Unit. Prior to beginning this operation, I met with the informant at a predetermined location. The informant and the informant's property were searched and nothing illegal was located. I provided the informant with electronic surveillance equipment and US currency from the GCMDEU Evidence Procurement Fund, of which the serial numbers of the bills were recorded. While in my presence, the informant made contact with Kennedy via cellular telephone communication and the two arranged to meet at a nearby location in order for Kennedy to sell a quantity of heroin to the informant. The informant met with Kennedy at the prescribed location and Kennedy sold a quantity of heroin to the informant in exchange for the money provided by the DEU. Immediately following this transaction, I met with the informant and recovered the drugs sold to him/her by Kennedy. The suspected drugs field-tested positive for the presence of heroin. The informant and his/her property were searched again and nothing illegal was located. The informant provided a statement of the event, which was consistent with audio and visual surveillance. The informant was also able to positively identify Michael Kennedy as the individual who sold him/her drugs by use of a six-person photo line-up.

During this incident, Kennedy was observed arriving in his 2007 Ford Mustang, which is registered to him at an old home address. Kennedy was followed from the incident location to the Woodside Eleven Apartments where he was observed parking and entering the apartment building that contains Apartment 1304. After observing Kennedy enter the breezeway that leads to Apartment 1304, Woodside Eleven Apartments management confirmed that Michael Justin Kennedy was the current lease holder of Apartment 1304 as of September 7, 2020.

Based on the recent information provided by a confidential informant, and Kennedy's criminal history, I had reason to believe that Michael Kennedy was engaged in illegal drug activity. Based on the aforementioned undercover operation, I confirmed this belief to be true. Based on my law enforcement training and my experience investigating criminal drug cases, I know illegal drug dealers to keep the items listed in the "DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY SOUGHT" section of this warrant in their homes and vehicles, along with records of such activity on their cellular communication devices. Based on my training and experience, I know individuals related to the sale of illegal drugs to commonly possess illegal drugs, drug paraphernalia, and concealable weapons on and/or about their persons.
