Following up, I have never included the record before the Appellate Panel unless there was some specific issue that arose during the argument. Also, I do not believe the deposition of the Claimant was ever submitted as an Exhibit at the hearing or as an APA submission. Please advise if you feel the Appellate record is needed and if you will withdraw the request to include the deposition. Or if I am mistaken about the inclusion of the deposition please let me know.

You have requested a copy of the hearing transcript from the Appellate Panel be included in the Record on Appeal. Could you please provide me with a copy?
