

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Terrance Adams, Petitioner,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2023-001922

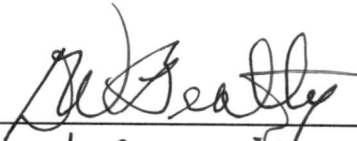

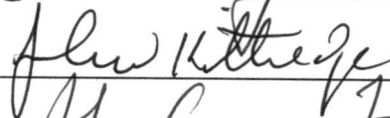

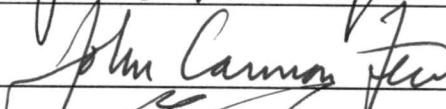

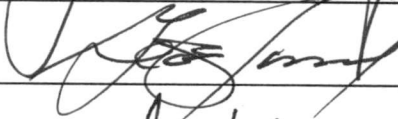

---

ORDER

---

Petitioner filed a notice of appeal from the denial of his fourth application for post-conviction (PCR). Petitioner was asked to provide the explanation required by Rule 243(c), SCACR, and in light of the number of PCR applications Petitioner has filed, he was also asked to provide any reasons this Court should not impose restrictions on his filing of collateral actions challenging his convictions and sentences for petit larceny (2005-GS-40-3474; -3475; -3936; and -4170), possession of burglary tools (2005-GS-40-3549), resisting arrest (2005-GS-40-3550), and first-degree burglary (2005-GS-40-3940 and -4169).

Petitioner has failed to show that there is an arguable basis for asserting the denial of his fourth PCR application was improper. Therefore, we dismiss the notice of appeal pursuant to Rule 243(c), SCACR. In addition, because Petitioner has not asserted any reason this Court should not impose restrictions on his future filings, we prohibit Petitioner from filing any further collateral actions in the circuit court, including PCR actions and habeas corpus actions, as well as any motions relating to the previously filed collateral actions, challenging his convictions and sentences for petit larceny, possession of burglary tools, resisting arrest, and first-degree burglary, or any motions in the underlying criminal case, including a motion pursuant to Rule 29, SCRCrimP, without first obtaining permission to do so from this Court.
