IN RE:
THE ESTATE OF JAMES BROWN
A/K/A: JAMES JOSEPH BROWN

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

Case No.: 2008-CP-02-1647 - original
Case No.: 2007-CP-02-0122 } cert copy
Case No.: 2008-CP-02-0872 }

On May 29, 2013 this Court held a status conference concerning Wilson v. Dallas, --- S.E.2d ---, 2013 WL 2005103 (2013), the South Carolina Supreme Court's May 8, 2013 Opinion (the "Opinion") affirming, reversing, and remanding this Court's May 26, 2009 order confirming the James Brown Estate and Trust Settlement Agreement.

In the Opinion, the Supreme Court affirmed this Court's decision to remove Ms. Adele J. Pope from her fiduciary positions. The Supreme Court noted that: "an irreconcilable conflict existed between [Ms. Pope] and the settling parties because [Ms. Pope] had expressed continuing opposition to their actions." Wilson, * 19. Accordingly, the Supreme Court held that, "the circuit court had cause to remove [her] and replace [her] with a professional fiduciary." Id. The Supreme Court went on to note that "the extreme discord between the parties convince us that [Ms. Pope's] continued service as [a] fiduciary is not in the best interest of the estate." Id.

The Supreme Court also found that this Court did not violate the statutory provisions regarding the removal of Ms. Pope as she had asserted that she was removed without this court complying with procedural mandates or for justifiable reasons. The Opinion further stated that that this Court had cause to remove her as it was not in the best interest of the estate. The Justices noted that the parties remained at odds over the handling of estate matters.

The Supreme Court referenced specific actions that it relied on in holding that Ms. Pope's service as a fiduciary was not in the best interest of the estate. The opinion specifically mentioned the $5 million dollars in fees she sought as fiduciary for a relatively short interval of time, paying her own fees from a large portion of the funds raised from selling iconic assets, and attempting to sell a GRAMMY award. The Supreme Court found no error in this Court removing Ms. Pope from her fiduciary positions.

Despite the South Carolina Supreme Court's Opinion, Ms. Pope has now filed several documents with this Court. The documents include Motions, Memoranda, and Proposed Scheduling Orders concerning the James Brown Estate and Trust litigation. These actions and filings will not be considered by this Court. The Supreme Court of South Carolina has upheld and affirmed Mrs. Pope's removal as fiduciary, denied her motions for rehearing, and the remittitur has since been filed in this Court. It is now the law of the case that Ms. Pope has been removed from her fiduciary positions and is no longer a party to the James Brown Estate and Trust litigation. It is the Order of this Court that Ms. Pope does not have standing to proceed with the motions she has filed since the Supreme Court's opinion has issued. Accordingly, this Court hereby directs the Clerk of Court to remove Ms. Pope's filings from these cases pursuant to the Supreme Court's Opinion removing her as party to these proceedings.

This Court is aware that Ms. Pope has filed a separate fee petition for Personal Representative and Trustee commissions. If Ms. Pope's fee petition is litigated, then pursuant to past practices, the Probate Court is hereby directed to assign the case to the Circuit Court, and the Clerk of Court is hereby directed to assign Mrs. Pope's fee petition a separate case number. Ms. Pope's filings relating to her fee petition shall then be filed under that case number.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
