Case # 2022-CP-100-3246

Anthony M. Chayban,

Respondent,

v.

Mary A. Griffith,

Appellant.

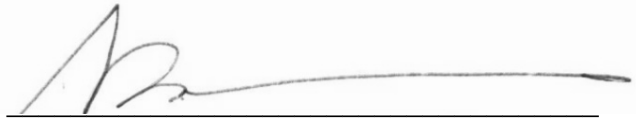

AMENDED MOTION TO SEAL LOWER COURT CASE AND HIDE IT FROM PUBLIC INDEX, COURTPLUS, AND/OR OTHER ONLINE PLATFORMS

As I've recently been using Google to search for the Defendant's address by entering his name and street name because I couldn't remember the numbers to address service, it came to my attention again that the lower court's action from Public Index is also appearing in Google, and probably other search engines. My family has been defamed online for 1.5 years because of criminal activity.

If you would please consider sealing the lower court case and make efforts to remove it from Public Index or other online indexing to prevent further defamation of my family, at least until this case can be proven one way or another, I would greatly appreciate that favor.

I understand I owe you another $50.00.

Respectfully Submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Mary A. Griffith', is written over a horizontal line. The signature is fluid and cursive.
