ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

Case No.: 2008-CP-02-1647 - original
Case No.: 2007-CP-02-0122 } copy
Case No.: 2008-CP-02-0872 }

On May 29, 2013 this Court held a status conference concerning Wilson v. Dallas, --- S.E.2d ---, 2013 WL 2005103 (2013), the South Carolina Supreme Court's May 8, 2013 Opinion (the "Opinion") affirming, reversing, and remanding this Court's May 26, 2009 order confirming the James Brown Estate and Trust Settlement Agreement.

In the Opinion, the Supreme Court affirmed this Court's decision to remove Ms. Adele J. Pope from her fiduciary positions. The Supreme Court noted that: "an irreconcilable conflict existed between [Ms. Pope] and the settling parties because [Ms. Pope] had expressed continuing opposition to their actions." Wilson, * 19. Accordingly, the Supreme Court held that, "the circuit court had cause to remove [her] and replace [her] with a professional fiduciary." Id. The Supreme Court went on to note that "the extreme discord between the parties convince us that [Ms. Pope's] continued service as [a] fiduciar[y] is not in the best interest of the estate." Id.

The Supreme Court also found that this Court did not violate the statutory provisions regarding the removal of Ms. Pope as she had asserted that she was removed without this court complying with procedural mandates or for justifiable reasons. The Opinion further stated that that this Court had cause to remove her as it was not in the best interest of the estate. The Justices noted that the parties remained at odds over the handling of estate matters.

[Signature]
#1

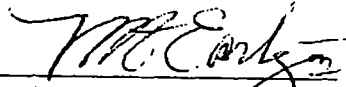

The Supreme Court referenced specific actions that it relied on in holding that Ms. Pope's service as a fiduciary was not in the best interest of the estate. The opinion specifically mentioned the $5 million dollars in fees she sought as fiduciary for a relatively short interval of time, paying her own fees from a large portion of the funds raised from selling iconic assets, and attempting to sell a GRAMMY award. The Supreme Court found no error in this Court removing Ms. Pope from her fiduciary positions.

Despite the South Carolina Supreme Court's Opinion, Ms. Pope has now filed several documents with this Court. The documents include Motions, Memoranda, and Proposed Scheduling Orders concerning the James Brown Estate and Trust litigation. These actions and filings will not be considered by this Court. The Supreme Court of South Carolina has upheld and affirmed Mrs. Pope's removal as fiduciary, denied her motions for rehearing, and the remittitur has since been filed in this Court. It is now the law of the case that Ms. Pope has been removed from her fiduciary positions and is no longer a party to the James Brown Estate and Trust litigation. It is the Order of this Court that Ms. Pope does not have standing to proceed with the motions she has filed since the Supreme Court's opinion has issued. Accordingly, this Court hereby directs the Clerk of Court to remove Ms. Pope's filings from these cases pursuant to the Supreme Court's Opinion removing her as party to these proceedings.

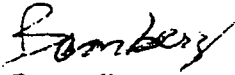

This Court is aware that Ms. Pope has filed a separate fee petition for Personal Representative and Trustee commissions. If Ms. Pope's fee petition is litigated, then pursuant to past practices, the Probate Court is hereby directed to assign the case to the Circuit Court, and the Clerk of Court is hereby directed to assign Mrs. Pope's fee petition a separate case number. Ms. Pope's filings relating to her fee petition shall then be filed under that case number.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

On May 29, 2013 this Court held a status conference concerning Wilson v. Dallas, --- S.E.2d ---, 2013 WL 2005103 (2013), the South Carolina Supreme Court's May 8, 2013 Opinion (the "Opinion") affirming, reversing, and remanding this Court's May 26, 2009 order confirming the James Brown Estate and Trust Settlement Agreement.

At the beginning of the status conference, the Court informed all parties of the following:
(1) that the parties will follow standard motions practice protocol (i.e., motion cover sheet, motion, filing fee, etc.) and that a memorandum in support of each motion must be filed contemporaneous with the filing of the motion, motions not supported by a memorandum will not be set for hearing; (2) that the Court will impose time limits for motions arguments by following the time limits set by the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, unless otherwise noted; (3) that due to the outdated Clerk of Court records for the following thirteen (13) James

MRE

Brown related cases pending in Aiken County, the Court will issue administrative orders and/or scheduling orders addressing each case; and (4) that the Court intends to, and expects the parties to move all of the appropriate cases forward in an expeditious manner that provides for structured and efficient administration of the estate and trust.

At the status conference, the Court heard from the following attorneys: Louis Levenson, counsel for several of James Brown's children/grandchildren; Alan Medlin, counsel for Tommie Rae Hynie Brown; Adele Pope, former fiduciary; C. Havird Jones, Jr., Asst. Deputy South Carolina Attorney General; David Bell, counsel for Terry Brown; J. David Black and William Newsome, counsel to Mr. Bauknight, currently serving Special Administrator of the James Brown Estate and Special Trustee of the James Brown 2000 Irrevocable Trust Agreement. At the close of the conference, the Court informed the attorneys that administrative orders would be issued to ensure orderly administration of the litigation of all pending James Brown cases.

The Court has reviewed the Clerk of Court's case files for the above listed civil action numbers, and because several cases date back to 2007, the captions as well as the represented party records are no longer accurate. In order to create a proper record for the Clerk of Court as to each civil action, the Court hereby enters the following administrative orders in the following cases:

1. 2008-CP-02-1647: James Brown Will and Trust Challenges

On May 8, 2013, the Supreme Court of South Carolina handed down its Opinion; the Opinion remanded the will and trust challenges to this Court; hereafter Case 1647 will be used for the James Brown will and trust litigation. The will and trust litigation involves claims challenging the validity of the will and trust, spousal claims, and an omitted child claim; if the litigation of these separate types of claims proves cumbersome, the Court will entertain a motion to sever any of these claims, and assign it a separate civil action number. Pursuant to the South

MAC
EL

Carolina Supreme Court's Opinion, the following individuals, former parties and/ or attorneys are removed from Case 1647:

- A. Adele Pope (former fiduciary, pro se)
- B. Robert Buchanan (former fiduciary, pro se)
- C. James Bailey (former counsel to Pope and Buchanan)
- D. James B. Richardson (appellate counsel to former fiduciaries Pope and Buchanan)
- E. Alfred A. Bradley (deceased)
- F. Albert H. Dallas (former fiduciary)
- G. Wayne R. Bird (former counsel to former fiduciary Albert H. Dallas)
- H. Eugene C. Covington (current counsel to former fiduciary Albert H. Dallas)
- I. David G. Cannon (former fiduciary)
- J. Jacquelyne Hollander (party to Case 1059)

The court will enter a separate scheduling order concerning the will and trust litigation.

In terms of reviewing fees paid in Case 1647, the Opinion directed that this Court undertake the following: "review the propriety of all fees, including attorneys' fees and trustees' fees, paid in relation to this action, and shall order all unearned fees or unapproved fees to be disgorged and returned to Brown's Estate." The Court further held that all other persons, firms, entities, or others who have been paid fees, including attorney's fees and Trustee fees, in relation to this action are likewise directed to submit their statement of fees paid in accordance with this Order.
