And did it go into the next day of September 12 and later?

I was only sent the audio for 9/11. So I just need to know the other days so I can ask for it from Court Admin.

My 60 days begin on receipt of payment. I have 12-08-23 as date the clock started.

I am actually almost done with it. Currently struggling with COVID for the first time ever so it has slowed me down a bit. I will get it to you as quickly as possible.

Thanks,

Ms. Richardson –

I am writing to ask about the progress with your portion of the requested transcript. In looking at the rules, it appears the court gives 60 days from the date of the request. I am uncertain whether that is calculated that from the date I first asked for the transcript (11/13/23) or the date when you began working on the transcript upon payment (12/10/23). Let me know your thoughts and whether you think you should get an extension from court administration. Thank you,

Ed

Good morning,

I was the reporter for Tuesday through Thursday of this trial, September 12-14. I came in on the second day.

I have estimated the cost for my portion to be $2,677.50. I will have to request, since this will be coming from an individual, that the payment be in advance to beginning transcription in this matter. My mailing address is Post Office Box 282, Aynor, 29511.

According to the judicial calendar, the first day of this trial was taken by Greene DCRP. You will need to request that portion of the transcript from Court Administration.

I have attached a transcript request form that you will need to fill out and return to me for my portion, and the DCRP portion will need to be forwarded to Court Administration.

Ms. Richardson –

At this point it all seems like such a blur but I wanted to confirm you served as the court reporter for the above trial the week of September 11th. Appeal is pending so if so, I will need to send you a letter requesting the transcript.

Thank you,

Ed Love
