SC Court of Appeals

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
COURT OF APPEAL

Ali Adebisi
Appellant

case no. 001700

Vs

LAKEVIEW LOAN SERVICING, LLC
Respondent(s)

Re: Motion Requesting Permission to Serve and File Appellant's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter Outside of Filing Deadlines

To the Court of Appeal in the State of South Carolina,

I, Ali, Adebisi, the appellant in the above-captioned case, respectfully submit this motion requesting permission from the South Carolina Appellate Court to serve and file my initial brief and designation of matter outside of the filing deadlines set by Rules 208 and 209 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR).

Background:

This case stems from the Court of Common Pleas in Florence County. The case was a Action for Quite Title which was brought into the court on May 26, 2023. This action was brought into the court over Real Property.

Reasons for the Request:

Appellant requests this extension of time to the filing deadline. Ignorance of the law is no excuse, and the Appellant is not here to make any excuses. I am not an attorney nor does the Appellant know the rules of this court. The Appellant asks for relief with the Court of Appeal to file this extension of time.

"Pleadings in this case are being filed by a Plaintiff in Propria Persona, wherein pleadings are to be considered without regard to technicalities. Propria, pleadings are not to be held to the same high standards of perfection as practicing lawyers. See Haines v. Kerner 92 Sct 594, also See Power 914 F2d 1459 (11thCir1990), also See Hulsey v. Ownes 63 F3d 354 (5th Cir 1995). also See in Re: HALL v. BELLMON 935 F.2d 1106 (10th Cir. 1991)."

Efforts Made to Comply with Deadlines:

To the understanding of the Appellant, I have filed on time when directed by the Court of Appeals. Appellant has made a diligent effort to comply with all the rules of the court to maintain compliance with the Rules of the Court without an attorney which is no excuse. As the Appellant, efforts to comply with the Rules of this Court are taken seriously, to show myself improved on all matters that the Appellant presents to the Court of Appeals in the State of South Carolina.

Proposed Timeline:

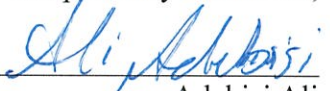

Along with this motion for an extension of time, Appellant brings to this court: Affidavit of Initial Brief, Designation of Matter, and Motion to Amend.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, Appellant respectfully requests the South Carolina Appellate Court to grant permission to serve and file the appellant's initial brief, designation of matter, and motion to amend outside of the filing deadlines set by Rules 208 and 209 of the SCACR.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you require any further information or clarification.

Respectfully submitted,

Adebisi Ali
