Re: William Steiner v. Wedgefield Plantation Association
Appellate Case No. 2023-001311

Dear Mr. Steiner:

Upon reviewing your initial brief of appellant, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or this matter will be dismissed:

- You may not include documents as exhibits to your brief. Rather, you should include the requested documents in your designation of matter as set forth by Rule 209 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. Your exhibits are being returned to you.
- Your initial brief of appellant is not in the correct format. Your brief should include a cover page listing the case title/information, a table of contents, a statement of the issues on appeal, a statement of the case, a standard of review, your argument, and a conclusion. All as outlined in Rule 208 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

Very truly yours,

Catherine Hannisa, deputy
