

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Respondent,

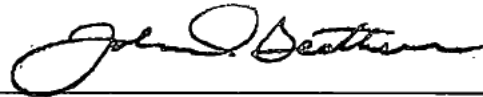

v.

Roland Green, Appellant.

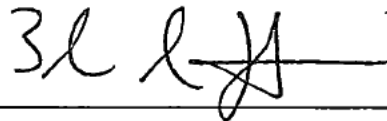

Appellate Case No. 2023-000300

ORDER

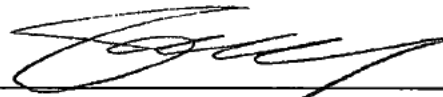

On January 19, 2024, Appellant sent this court correspondence contesting the dismissal of his appeal, which we construe as a petition for rehearing. After careful consideration of the petition, the Court is unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law has been either overlooked or disregarded, and hence, there is no basis for granting a rehearing.¹ Accordingly, the petition for rehearing is denied.

¹ Appellant failed to articulate any issues with his guilty plea or sentencing that were preserved for this court's review on direct appeal. Appellant's allegations regarding the alleged ineffectiveness of his plea counsel would be more appropriately set forth in an application for post-conviction relief. See S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-10 et seq.; Al-Shabazz v. State, 338 S.C. 354, 363, 527 S.E.2d 742, 747 (2000) ("In a direct appeal, the focus generally is upon the propriety of rulings made by the circuit court in response to a party's motions or objections. In PCR, the focus usually is upon alleged errors made by trial or plea counsel.").
