APPELLANTS.

NOTICE THAT APPELLANTS HAVE RECEIVED TRANSCRIPTS AND MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE APPELLANTS BRIEF

Appellants do hereby give notice to this Honorable Court that the transcripts for this case were received on or about January 20, 2024.

Appellants now request that this Honorable Court grant them an extension of time in which to file their appellate brief to be due on March 10, 2024 based on the following.....

Pursuant to Rule 208 of the Rules of Appellate Practice for South Carolina an Appellant has 30 days from the receiving of transcripts to file their initial brief in this Honorable Court. In this case, Appellants are filing as pro se without the help of counsel and need additional time to properly prepare these legal briefs. Both Appellants have businesses that they must maintain and families. Appellant Woodbury has been moving from his former residence to a new residence which has put him in a position of not being able to have the initial brief prepared and filed within this Honorable Court by February 20, 2024... within the prescribed 30 days pursuant to Rule 208 of receiving the transcript.

Therefore, in the interests of justice Appellants do now request that this Honorable Court grant them until March, 10, 2024 to have their initial brief submitted and filed in this Court.

Respectfully Submitted,

Christopher R. Woodbury
