Re: Joe Clemons v. William S. Helmly
Appellate Case No. 2023-000460

Dear Counsel and Mr. Clemons:

Enclosed is the decision of the Court. The supplemental record on appeal must be served and filed within twenty (20) days of the date of this letter, or this appeal will be dismissed.

Very truly yours,

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Joe Clemons, Appellant,

v.

William S. Helmly/President & CEO of Home Telecom
Co., Respondent.

---

ORDER

On December 15, 2023, Appellant filed the record on appeal. On January 10, 2024, Respondent filed a motion to correct the record on appeal because the record failed to "contain all documents designated by Appellant and Respondent." On February 7, 2024, this court granted Respondent's motion and ordered Appellant to serve and file a supplemental record on appeal containing all documents designated by the parties, which were omitted from the previously filed record on appeal within thirty days of the order. The order further allowed the parties to file amended final briefs within twenty days of the date of service of the supplemental record on appeal. On February 22, 2024, and February 26, 2024, Appellant wrote letters to this court requesting Respondent's motion to correct the record on appeal "be dismissed." We construe these letters as a petition to rehear the order granting the motion to correct the record on appeal. After careful consideration, we take no action on the petition for rehearing because the order granting the motion to correct the record on appeal did not dismiss or finally decide the appeal. See Rule 221(c), SCACR ("The appellate court will not entertain petitions for rehearing on a motion or petition unless the action of the court on the motion or petition has the effect of dismissing or finally deciding a party's appeal.").
