Good Afternoon,

Please be advised the parties have agreed to supplement the Record on Appeal in this matter. Accordingly, Respondents will be submitting a separate supplement to the Court so that the cites to the record as existing in the final briefs are not altered.

Please advise if there is a specific timeframe the supplement will need to be filed with the Court and if there is anything further you need from us to facilitate this supplement.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

With kindest regards,

Stephanie S. Simpson

Subject: RE: Penland Automotive v. Dealer Financial

Good evening, Jason,

I did have a nice holiday, and I hope you and your family did as well.

You can let the Court know that we do not object to a supplement of the record on appeal with the materials outlined below. However, we would ask that this be created as a separate supplement by your office so that the cites to the record as existing in the final briefs are not altered.

Please let me know if you would like to discuss.

Thanks,

Emily

Emily and Robert –

I hope you and your families enjoyed the Holidays.

We are finalizing our final brief. As we were preparing the final brief, we realized that we identified depo experts in briefs and arguments but did not identify the deposition transcripts of Mr. Penland, Dan Haight, or Tim Yarger as well as Plaintiff's reply brief in opposition to defendant's motion for partial summary judgment filed October 14th, 2022 with exhibits. I think those should probably be in the record on appeal.

Pursuant to Rule 212 we respectfully request consent to supplement the record with those 3 deposition transcripts and the briefs and exhibits filed with the circuit court. Please let us know by the end of the week so that we can motion the court if you decline consent.

Thank you for your consideration.

Jason Imhoff
