Re: William P. Scurry And J & W Corporation Of Greenwood V. SCDHEC And Simmons Family Holdings, LLC; Appellate Case No. 2023-001592; The Hon. Robert Lawrence Reibold Trial Court Case No.: 2022ALJ070033CC; Request for 30-day extension for filing Appellants' Initial Brief

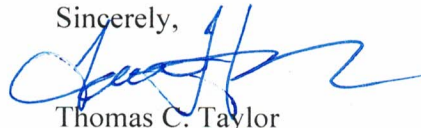

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I represent the Appellants William P. Scurry and the J & W Corporation of Greenwood in this case. Brad Churdar represents Respondent SCDHEC and Michael Traynham represents Respondent Simmons Family Holdings, LLC. Both are copied on this letter.

As per the Court's scheduling letter of February 12, the Appellants' Initial Brief and Designation of Matter is scheduled to be filed on March 13, 2024. I write today requesting a 30-day extension of time to file the Respondents' Initial Brief and Designation of Matter. I was diagnosed with Covid 19 on February 13, 2024 and had surgery on February 23 with a Covid-related issue. I am recovering well, but I do not believe I can complete the Initial Brief by March 13. I have notified Respondents' counsel and they do not object to the 30-day extension. This is the first requested extension.

I have handled these requests at other times by similar letter, and assume this informal letter request is still acceptable. If you would prefer that I file a formal Motion prior to March 13, 2024, I certainly will if you will please advise me to do so. I thank you in advance for your consideration. Please contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Thomas C. Taylor
