Re: Athena Irland v. Brandy Culp
Appellate Case No. 2023-001852

Dear Ms. Irland:

Upon reviewing your appellant's initial brief, the following deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or this matter will be dismissed:

- The document is not accompanied by the required certificate of counsel.
- The brief does not comply with Rule 208(b), SCACR. Specifically, the brief must contain the content in the following order: table of contents and cases, statement of issues on appeal, statement of the case, standard of review, argument, and conclusion. You must serve and file an amended appellant's initial brief substantially in the format shown by Form 13 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.
- The initial brief is not accompanied by a designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal. The designation of matter may only propose to include any material relevant to this appeal to be included in the Record on Appeal. You must serve and file a designation of matter substantially in the format shown by Form 14 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR. The designated material provided in the brief is being returned to you.

Very truly yours,

Catherine Hannisa, deputy
