

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Palmetto Health and Department of Employment and Workforce, Respondent,

v.

Alma Washington, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2012-210826

ORDER

This case was dismissed due to Appellant's failure to serve the record on appeal and file proof of service, as required by Rule 210 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). Appellant has now filed a letter, which we construe as a petition to rehear the dismissal of her appeal, attaching the record on appeal. The record has the following deficiencies:

- (1) A proof of service has not been filed for the record on appeal. The proof of service provided by Appellant indicated the notice of appeal, and not the record on appeal, was served. The proof of service shall be prepared as shown in Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.
- (2) The record on appeal shall contain all matter designated by all parties. See Rule 210, SCACR.
- (3) The record on appeal shall contain an index and a certificate of counsel. See Rule 210, SCACR.
- (4) Matter contained in the record on appeal shall be arranged as follows: the title page; index; orders; judgments; decrees; decisions; pleadings; transcript; charges; exhibits and other materials or documents; and a certificate of counsel. See Rule 210, SCACR.

(5) Each page of the record shall be numbered consecutively, beginning with the index. See Rule 210, SCACR.

Within ten days, Appellant shall prepare an amended record on appeal curing all deficiencies set forth in this order, serve the amended record on Respondent, and file a proof of service with this court. Upon receipt of the proof of service, or upon the expiration of ten days, this court will consider Appellant's petition for rehearing.
