Dear Chief Justices:

I am appealing to order to seek Equal Justice to resolve this matter. After your decision, and the Court of Appeals "REMITTITUR". SC WORKERS' COMPENSATION has refused to privately provide REMEDY to Alicia Ruffin. SC Workers Compensation reported and accepted TTD Funds in behalf the Complainant since November 30, 2020 over now $1.5 million dollars with current 4% interest rate. SC Workers Compensation had the responsibility to care for and provided necessary medical care and to make the Complainant whole after suffering Economic and Non-Economic losses after suffering injury from the equipment of Builders FirstSource, but in addition suffering injuries from the mandatory treatment ordered by Liberty Mutual. The enclosed emails are the expressions from SC Workers' Compensation Commission and their refusal to cooperate with the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals order to allow a fair REMEDY for the Equitable Beneficiary's Loss.

Please assist me to find RESOLUTION to this matter.

Most Respectfully,

Alicia Ruffin
Equitable Beneficiary, Jus Personarum

Dear Workers' Compensation Commission,

I am writing you in reference to the above case matter. My understanding is that this case has been Remitted back to your jurisdiction. I am contacting you as to how the Commission will be looking to bring REMEDY to the above case matter.

Respectfully, there were funds that was claimed in the Claimant's behalf on the part of Workers' Compensation that are owed to the Equitable Beneficiary and additional financial Remedy that is also owed. In the pursuit for Justice for All, please provide me with the information necessary to bring this matter to a fair Equitable close.

Sincerely,

Alicia Ruffin
Equitable Beneficiary, Jus Personarum
