

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Kesha Petty, Appellant,

v.

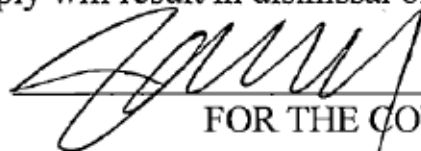

Cathy Biggerstaff, individually and as owner of B&B Amusement, Inc., and B&B Amusement, Inc., Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2022-001304

ORDER

On November 20, 2023, this court granted Respondents' motion to strike Appellant's final brief because she failed to timely serve and file a final brief that was identical to her initial brief aside from citations to the record and corrections of typographical errors, in accordance with the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. See Rule 211(b), SCACR ("The final brief(s) shall be identical to the brief(s) previously served under Rule 208, except . . . [t]he references in the initial brief shall be revised to indicate where the material appears in the Record on Appeal," and "[t]he party may correct obvious typographical errors and misspellings which were contained in the initial brief."). We allowed Appellant thirty days within which to serve and file an amended final brief that complied with the aforementioned rules; she failed to do so. Respondents now move to dismiss the appeal and in response, Appellant alleges she did not receive this court's November 20, 2023 order.

Respondents' motion to dismiss is denied. Within twenty days of the date of this order, Appellant shall serve and file an amended final brief that complies with Rule 211(b), SCACR. Failure to comply will result in dismissal of this appeal.
